

GCA 'Makes It' In Andover, Officials Agree

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Noting the increasingly important role the high technology industry is playing in Massachusetts, state and town officials helped GCA Corp. celebrate the dedication of its new $18 million plant in West Andover Industrial Tech Park Tuesday morning.

Governor Edward J. King, Senator Paul Tsongas, Massachusetts High Technology Council President Howard P. Foley and Selectmen Chairman Norma Gammon were among the officials who spoke at the dedication ceremonies for the 300,000 square-foot plant.

The new plant — the largest manufacturing plant built in the state during the past year, according to GCA — has been in operation since January, and currently employs 400 people. GCA promises to employ 1,000 at the plant by mid-1982.

At the close of the ceremony, GCA Chairman and President Milton Greenberg presented a $3,500 check to Robert G. Butler, chairman of the board of trustees of Memorial Hall Library, for the purchase of technology and science books and periodicals.

Gov. King, who arrived nearly 30 minutes late, told the audience of GCA employees, customers, shareholders and guests — including representatives of the Japanese firm Sumitomo of America — that he was attending the ceremony to show "support for this type of development and expansion...as I should." Industrial development has been a major theme of the King administration.

"I believe in growth and profit," the governor said. "I want you to make a lot of money — then we make money, too." The state, he joked, regards itself as "a stockholder" in Massachusetts industries — a remark that earned his biggest laugh from the audience.

King emphasized the importance of the jobs the new GCA facility will bring to Andover and the state.

"Is there anything more important than people working?" he asked. New employment benefits individuals, families, and the state alike: "We then have money coming into the state treasury, versus sending out a check for unemployment or welfare."

The governor praised GCA for the "inspirational example" of its success since the Bedford-based company was founded 23 years ago, and he pledged to continue to encourage industry to "Make it in Massachusetts."

Senator Tsongas also had praise for the way high technology has resurrected industry in the Commonwealth, asking, "Can you imagine what our state would be without technological input? It wouldn't be a state." He explained that high tech was born along the banks of Boston's

Teachers Elected To Tenure Despite Proposition 2½

By Linda S. Corbett

Thirteen Andover teachers were elected to tenure last week and 17 others rehired, putting their fears of a layoff to rest for at least another year.

However, for another 20 teachers, the wait is not yet over.

The school committee voted to inform them they would not be rehired "at this time," a technicality required by law so the system won't be required to find places for them. However, it is possible, after youngsters are redistricted from Shawsheen School and classrooms are set up for next year, that openings may be available for some or all of them.

It is possible, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee, "that a large number of them actually will be back with us."

Seifert called the teachers recommended for tenure "really exceptional." He said they had "passed" their reviews "with flying colors," and that he was more than willing "to invest the future of our schools in these people."

Those rehired were basically saved by

Warrant May Be Reopened

Town meeting preparations will dominate the selectmen's meeting next Monday night when the board convenes at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Hall Library.

Dina Hammond of the Conservation Commission and Public Works Director Robert McQuade are scheduled to meet with the board to discuss three conservation commission articles. The articles propose that the town buy the development rights to the Turner and Dargoonian farms, and acquire several parcels at the Pole Hill subdivision.

And, according to Selectman Norma Gammon, a citizen may petition the board to reopen the warrant, so that he may insert a private article for the rezoning of a Frontage Road parcel of land.

The selectmen will also review street layouts for proposed street acceptances, discuss other warrant articles, and possibly decide in what order the articles will appear on the warrant for the annual meeting, which will begin May 26.

Shattuck Trustees Recognized For Contributions

The Trustees of the Catherine G. Shattuck Trust have been named as one of 10 winners of the 1981 Massachusetts Preservation Awards.

They were chosen, according to Secretary of State Michael Joseph Connolly, chairman of the Mass. Historical Commission, for their "special contributions to the preservation effort."

The Shattuck Trustees contributed to the historical and archaeological survey of the Shattuck Farm, the historic farmstead on which a prehistoric Indian village was found. According to Connolly, the Trust has "allowed a research project of the highest quality to occur at an important archaeological site soon to undergo industrial development."

"Through their efforts," Connolly said, "the award winners have strengthened the cause of historic preservation in a state richly endowed with treasures of the past."

Conservation Commission Seeks Volunteers

The Andover Conservation Commission is looking for volunteers for a proposed Conservation Land Management Committee to help with the problems and opportunities that stewardship of open space entails.

There are currently more than 60 separate parcels under the control of the Conservation Commission, acquired since 1966 by means of gifts, transfers of tax title lands and purchases. From time to time, the town manager appoints overseers, whose duties are principally surveillance.

A committee which would coordinate management and maintenance, deal with problems of abuse and vandalism, and encourage legitimate uses, could be very helpful in establishing more systematic maintenance and better utilization.

Andover has a tremendous asset in its extensive open spaces. Better management could enhance the value and usefulness of town-owned conservation reservations, a task which the commission itself lacks the time and resources to carry out successfully. The Andover Village Improvement Society's land management system could provide a useful example.

Bob Pustell, chairman of the Conservation Commission, hopes there are Andover residents who would find this community service activity interesting and rewarding. If you would like to serve, please write the commission at 11 Essex St., or call Pustell.

You may want to volunteer to be an overseer for a specific reservation in your neighborhood, or you might be interested to join the parent committee.

ACT Gears Up For Performance

The antics of a hare-brained but happy family living in a kind of poor man's Shangri-la are the focal point of the Pulitzer prize-winning comedy to be presented by the Andover Community Theatre at the West Elementary School early next month.

"You Can't Take It With You" by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman will be staged May 2, 8 and 9, at 8 p.m. and May 3 at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are available at Andover Liquors in Shawsheen Plaza, Thompson Office Supply on Main Street, from members of the cast or at the door at each performance.

The action takes place in the every-man-for-himself household of the Sycamore family where plays are written, snakes collected, ballet steps practiced, xylophones played, printing presses operated and fireworks created.

Featured in the play are Thomas Martel, Marianne Karp, Maureen Brackett, Robb Moylan, Dana Ivy, Scott Hilse, John O'Connor, Ron Wackowski, Kim Enders, Joseph Nolan, William Joubert Sr., Jack Virr, Jane Martel, Steve Longo, Joni Coleman, Caryl Hastings, Marshall Darling, Harry Collins and Edward Winters.

"You Can't Take It With You" is being presented in conjunction with the Andover Department of Community Services and is produced by William Brackett and directed by Thomas A. Kirkaman.

Woman Monk Lectures At Academy

Swami Shraddhananda, one of America's few women monks, will introduce the ancient technique of Siddha Meditation at a special program Sunday evening, April 26, at 6:45 in the Underwood Room, Phillips Academy, across from the Andover Inn.

The program, sponsored by the Andover Siddha Meditation Center, is free and open to everyone.

In addition to the Swami's lecture entitled, "Journey to the Self," the program includes instruction in meditation, questions and answers and the latest video newsreel of Siddha Yoga with its main exponent, Swami Muktananda.

Shraddhananda is a member of the ancient Saraswati order of monks, a tradition with roots in eighth century India. Formerly Valerie Van Wolf, she taught theater in her native Chicago to black and hispanic populations and supervised a new method of teaching English to educationally deprived adults. In 1971 she moved to California to develop a program for the Chinese community in Oakland. Remaining in California, she in turn became a community organizer for low income groups, a family counselor and a vocational counselor.

In 1974 Mrs. Wolf met meditation master, Swami Muktananda. Since then her life has been spent in Muktananda's centers both in the United States and in his native India. In 1977 she took initial vows of renunciation and three years later, in November 1980, was initiated into the ancient order of orange-clad monks.

Shraddhananda is the mother of two grown children who are also students of Siddha Meditation.

For further information, call Joanne Dahlgren at the Andover Siddha Meditation Center, 45 Whittier St.

Looking to the Future

Senator Paul Tsongas, speaking during dedication ceremonies for the new GCA Corp. plant in Tech Park, warned that Massachusetts' high tech industry could go the way of its textile mills if the booming industry fails to invest in the future.

GCA

Charles River, at M.I.T. and Harvard.

But the senator tempered his praise with the warning that high tech could someday go the way of the textile and shoe industries that once flourished in the Merrimack Valley, if industry fails to look toward the future.

"Our Japanese colleagues understand very well that the future is knowledge," Tsongas said. "Look at the Japanese re-investment in research and development."

American industrialists must "turn around their investment policy" and devote more of their profits to research, he cautioned, or "we will be living off the corn we should be planting for our children's generation."

Foley, president of the High Technology Council, explained that the future is precisely the concern of the council, which is "fighting for enlarged educational opportunities and fiscal reform," both crucial to continued industrial development in the state.

The 120 member companies of the council believe that "the key to growth in the region is based on translating ideas into products that can compete in world markets," Foley said. "Our members sell products all over the world, and we are affected by state, national and international politics."

The council is dedicated to helping develop "human resources," he said, and encourages students from kindergarten

'Undergraduates'

Karen Velasco and Lauren DiStefano, both of Andover, are among the "undergraduates" in the ballet, "Graduation Ball," which will be performed May 3 at West Jr. High.

Young Dancers To Perform Here

The Youth Dance Company, comprised of students from the Donna Miceli Dance Center, is rehearsing for "An Evening of Dance," which will include the ballet, "Graduation Ball," as well as excerpts of concert jazz dance pieces.

"Graduation Ball" takes place in a girls boarding school in Vienna, where the girls are anxiously preparing to welcome cadets from a nearby military academy to their annual graduation dance. The ball gets underway with interactions between a bold junior miss and a bashful cadet. Entertainment, a dance competition, flirtation and secret romances all happen during the ballet.

Jazz dance pieces will be performed to music varying from Chuck Mangione to traditional gospel music and country hoe-down.

The performance will take place Sunday, May 3, at 7 p.m. at West Jr. High School, Andover. Proceeds will go toward a scholarship fund for promising dancers.

Heart Fund Volunteers Needed

The American Heart Association, Northeast Massachusetts Division, certifies over 10,000 people in CPR and provides kit materials for these certifications every year. It takes a great deal of time to keep enough kits in stock to meet the demand for this very important community program.

The division is looking for interested volunteers to spend a few hours on a regular or on-call basis to prepare the kits.

Anyone interested in assisting the Heart Association in this way should contact the Program Department, 79 No. Main St., Andover.

Auction Items May Be Donated Saturday

It's A Little Small, But...

As East Junior High baseball coach Ted Boudreau looks on, Chris Scarpa finds that this large doghouse is not quite his size—but there will be something for everyone at the Eighth Annual Town of Andover Recycling Auction Saturday, May 2, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Doherty School.

Doherty School on Bartlet Street will be open from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday to receive goods for the May 2 town Recycling Auction.

Evening receiving hours are set for Friday, May 1, from 6 to 9 p.m., and weekday hours continue from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Pickup of large items can be arranged by calling the Town Hall recycling number, Mrs. James Beattie or Mrs. Paul Hollenbeck.

Ralph Sharpe, Jr., is to preside on May 2 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., auctioning off a wide variety of items, including bikes, furniture, appliances, and even a doghouse. In addition to bargains for the whole family, there will be food available throughout the day.

The town aluminum drive will be held at Doherty, too, starting at the same time as the auction, but with hours extending until 3 p.m.

1909 Buggy

A 1909 Sears motor-buggy recently driven in a film by Paul Newman, will be a special attraction at the Museum of Transportation's annual Mothball Meet, to be held May 2, 11 to 4, at Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline.

Students Perform

Jane A. Cormier of Andover is one of the students who will be presenting a concert of vocal and piano music Saturday at 3 p.m. in Bradford College's Conover Hall. Students of Jane Struss and Mark Peterson will perform works of Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Gounod, Bartok, Gershwin and others.

The event is open to the public at no charge.

Teenage Depression, Suicide Are Topics At Special Meeting

The Andover Peer Counseling Project is sponsoring an educational program on depression and suicide Tuesday evening, April 28, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Andover High School Large Group Room.

Earns Prize In Art History

Deborah Ward Bedford of 44 High St., Andover, was one of 47 students at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill honored recently at the Chancellor's annual awards ceremony.

Bedford, a senior, received the Undergraduate Prize in Art History. The award is given annually by the department of art to the undergraduate who, in the opinion of a faculty committee, writes the most outstanding essay in art history.

Bedford plans a career in dance and/or publishing.

The llama is a South American pack animal of the camel family, valued for its wool and milk.

The program is open to all adolescents and adults in the and is of special interest to mental health and youth-serving professionals.

Guest speakers will be Dr. Michael D'Amico, a local psychologist, and a lecturer for the Greater Lawrence Samaritans. Following the two presentations will be a question and answer period and small group discussions.

Previous evening educational programs sponsored by the Peer Counseling Project this year include College/Future Thoughts and Family Life Education. The April 28 program on depression and suicide will also serve as an integral part of "growth experience training," a 15-week training program designed to 1. increase students' self-awareness; 2. teach and develop communication and listening skills; and 3. increase a student's knowledge of relevant topics such as alcohol and drug abuse, depression, loneliness and peer pressure.

Growth experience training is a pre-requisite to becoming a peer counselor but is also open to all Andover High School students. Approximately one out of 10 students in the high school has completed growth experience training.

Presidential Scholars

Some 63 seniors, 52 juniors and 20 continuing education students have achieved the status of Presidential Scholars at Merrimack College, according to president Rev. John A. Coughlan, O.S.A.

To attain the honor of Presidential Scholar at Merrimack, a student must have achieved at least a 3.25 cumulative average at the end of the fifth semester of collegiate study.

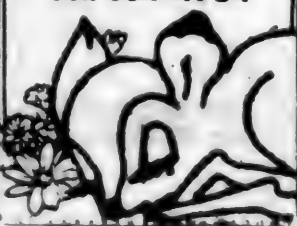

Among those who received this honor were Susan E. Danforth, 122 High St., Andover, a junior, and Mary Susana Banford, 40 Woodland Road; Frances M. Lane, 154 High Plain Road and Catherine M. Timmons, 181 Andover St., in continuing education.

The annual dinner to honor Presidential Scholars will be held tonight in Di-Burro's Restaurant, Bradford.

A Visit To Ma Bell

A group of nine West Jr. High youngsters from the ECHO program for gifted and talented spent a morning at Bell Laboratories in North Andover recently, where staff volunteers guided them in the use of computers for basic problem-solving. Student Volunteers

John Hunter and Mark Nichols of Andover, both juniors at Governor Dummer Academy, volunteered their services four afternoons a week during the winter term, under GDA's Community Service Program.

Hunter assisted at the Anna Jaques Hospital in Newburyport, while Mark Nichols helped at the Living and Learning Daycare Center and the Y pool in Newburyport.

Dr. Mahlon Loomis received the earliest patent for the description of a radio transmission in 1864 after he demonstrated transmission between two kites in Virginia.

Anne Hopkins Is Valedictorian

Anne Hopkins, daughter of Mrs. Barbara S. Hopkins of Newburyport, and Mr. Frank W. Hopkins of Andover, has been named as the valedictorian of Gould Academy's 1981 class.

Anne is spending her second year at the college preparatory, coeducation boarding school in Bethel, Maine, and is currently in France as a member of the school's Foreign Exchange program. She is living with a French family, attending a French school and being introduced to French culture through travel.

Anne has headed the list of high honors each term, while handling more than the normal course load of five subjects each term. In addition, she has participated in Gould's drama productions, including the "Pirates of Penzance" last year; been a member of the JV soccer team and the Student Council, and participated in Gould's winter mountaineering, a special program of the Outing Club.

Anne participated in a new academic class this past winter term called "The Gould Seminars." This program for a small number of advanced students brought together faculty and students to discuss specific topics where intellect and academic research are necessary to participate.

Anne has been admitted to Dartmouth College on early decision. She will return from France to participate in Gould's Commencement Exercises May 30.

The older children will create three-dimensional art in a variety of forms such as pottery, papier mache and puppets. These youngsters will also work with logic, probability, estimation, calculator games, computers, spatial relations, nature patterns, time pieces, the stock market and some may even create their own number systems.

Coordinator of the JOY program for academically talented students is Lisette Kaplowitz, of the educational assistant program at Northern Essex. She will be assisted by four highly qualified instructors who have extensive backgrounds in art, English, psychology and mathematics.

Additional information is available by contacting Kaplowitz or the Continuing Education Office.

Botanical Research

The botanical research garden at the University of Padua in 1545 was a circle of five acres, with a diameter of 92 yards. It was divided into four parts that were subdivided, and is the earliest example of a planting scheme that is standard in modern botanical gardens. The garden is preserved with many of the species still extant that are listed in the 1591 catalog, according to Massachusetts Audubon.

New England Handcrafts

A non-profit store featuring the handcrafts of New England is open at 125 State St., Boston, Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, noon to 6 p.m. Sponsored by Action, Vista Peace Corps.

Summer Program For Gifted

A program for academically gifted and talented youngsters will be offered at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, this summer. Courses have been planned to provide intellectual stimulation and an opportunity for peer interaction, as well as for sheer enjoyment.

The Jump Over Years (JOY) program is open to children in grades kindergarten through six who have score of at least 125 on a recognized I.Q. test. The children will be separated into two age groups, and to assure a high degree of individual attention, class sizes will be small. Altogether there will be four classes of 10 to 12 youngsters each. Classes will be held Monday through Friday mornings during the first three weeks of August.

The younger children will explore the magic and mystery of science, math and mythology and apply what they learn to the creation of their own musical instruments, their own poetry and prose, and to body movement. They will also create an original multi-media production. In addition, these youngsters will make use of the science of color and light to produce a tapestry. They will create their own looms and dye their own material. Children will also have the opportunity to create their own kites and other air structures. Simple techniques of photography will also be

Annual Avis Canoe Races May 2

The Andover Village Improvement Society will sponsor its 11th annual canoe and kayak races Saturday, May 2, on the Shawsheen River in Andover. Events for all ages and abilities will be scheduled, as well as a separate category in each race for kayaks.

The Beginners Race, downstream only, will begin at 10 a.m. in Ballardvale. Entrants for this race should meet just below the dam off Dale Street. Registration will start there at 9:30 a.m.

The Intermediate Race will begin at 11 a.m. at the Abbot Bridge on Central Street for a round trip to a halfway point upstream. Entrants may register at the bridge anytime before the start. The open race, a round trip race to Ballardvale, starts at noon.

Races have been scheduled so each canoe can be used for all three races if desired. There will be trophies for each event, including one for the fastest kayak in the open race.

The AVIS Shawsheen River Reservation consists of 28 acres of rural land along the west bank of the river. It connects with the Vale Reservation, an additional 46 acres, to provide a continuous expanse of land from Central Street to Ballardvale, over a mile and a half in length. There is a trail along the river for walking, and several bridges have been constructed to facilitate cross wet areas.

The banks of the river provide an ideal area for picnicking and watching the energetic participants. After the races families enjoy navigating the course at a slower pace while watching for nesting wildlife.

Headlights

Although spring brings longer days, the ALA Auto and Travel Club warns motorists not to become careless about using their headlights when necessary during later afternoon and early evening hours.

Social Worker - Singer Featured At Meeting

The Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence will hold its annual meeting Friday, May 15, at The Lanam Club in Andover. There will be a social hour beginning at noon with luncheon being served at 12:30 p.m.

Mike Noble, a resident of Gorham, Maine, and professional musician and songwriter, will present a program of original "Songs About Children and Families." Noble performed in concerts before human service, civic and religious groups from Maine to Memphis, Tenn.

His topical songs, containing social and political satire, have been played on National Public Radio "All Things Considered" program and on the British Broadcasting Company's radio network.

They are a composite of blue grass, ragtime, ballads, lullabies and country western. They touch on subjects such as birth, child-rearing, the emotional and economic frustrations of family life, and hope for the future. The afternoon promises to be one which is simultaneously entertaining and enriching.

Anyone who is interested in attending this annual meeting may contact the Family Service office at 430 North Canal St., Lawrence, for further information.

Volunteer Tutors Aid New Neighbors

Several Andover residents lend a hand to neighbors in Greater Lawrence by participating in the GLEAM (Greater Lawrence Ecumenical Area Ministry) English tutoring program for Hispanics and other foreign-born persons.

The tutoring program is informal, with tutors generally giving one to two hours of their time per week, usually in the student's home, to help the Hispanic persons improve their English. Tutoring may take place in the morning, afternoon, or evening, depending on the schedules of students and tutors. They are matched according to individual needs and meet at a time convenient to both. No knowledge of Spanish is necessary, just patience and the desire to be of help.

Tutor meetings are held occasionally during the year so that tutors may compare notes, share ideas, and discuss problems. One of these meetings will be held Tuesday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the GLEAM office, 2 Wyman St., Lawrence. All interested persons are encouraged to attend to find out more about the program. Information may also be obtained by calling Jo Coombs, Andover, or Felicita Rivera, North Andover, program coordinators, or the GLEAM office.

Presently there are about 115 tutors and students participating in the program. Tutoring may be done on a one-to-one basis, one person may tutor a couple or small group, or a family may help a family. In addition to the students having an opportunity to improve their English, the program enables them to make a friend outside their immediate Hispanic community. Tutors benefit also by making new friends, by having the opportunity to learn about another culture, and by picking up a little Spanish. Countries now represented by students in the program are the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Guatemala, Peru and Ecuador.

Most Hispanics are very anxious to improve their English because they know that that will enable them to lead fuller lives through better jobs and better communication with doctors, teachers, store clerks, and others.

GLEAM is an organization supported by area churches which actively help the Hispanic community in many ways, including neighborhood rehabilitation and revitalization, job referral, co-sponsoring courses for Hispanic ministers with Gordon-Conwell Seminary, assisting with arranging for Hispanics to obtain garden plots on West Parish Church property in Andover and Trinity Episcopal Church in Topsfield, and arranging retreats and conferences to reduce racial barriers.

Plainly Speaking

An Andover Music Man

Andover's Paul Greene has the lead role of Harold Hill in the North Reading Theatre Workshop's upcoming production of 'the Music Man.' Shown here with Donna Zarba of Wakefield, who plays opposite him as Marian Paroo, Greene is also producer, director and choreographer of the musical, which opens April 25 for a three-night run.

Workshop Presents 'Music Man'

The April 25 opening of "The Music Man" by the North Reading Theatre Workshop marks the beginning of the group's fourth year of musical productions.

The Workshop was organized in 1978 by Paul D. Greene of Andover, who has produced, directed and choreographed all six of the group's previous productions—Carousel, Scrooge, Fiddler on the Roof, Mame, My Fair Lady and Kiss Me, Kate.

In addition to his roles as producer, director and choreographer, Greene will also play the part of Harold Hill, the traveling charlatan who succeeds in selling the idea of a boys' band to the people in River City, Iowa.

Greene, a professional entertainer, currently performs at Marie's 76 Restaurant in Pelham, N.H. Now residing in Andover, he was a church choir director in North Reading for 14 years and is a former soloist with the North Reading Choral Society.

Other local residents playing leading roles include Juli Wood of Andover, as Zaneeta Shinn; Amy Zimmerman of North Andover as Amaryllis, and Paul Dollard of

Academy Alumnus In Recital

Under the auspices of the music department, George Loring, a former Phillips Academy student, will give a piano recital in the Addison Gallery tomorrow night at 7.

Loring will perform Beethoven's "Sonata in E major," Liszt's "Zwei Konzertetuden," a selection from Ravel's "Miroirs," and Brahms' "Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel." The public is invited to attend. There is no charge for admission.

Loring graduated from the academy in 1971, going on to the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y., for one year. He then returned to the Boston area and attended Harvard College, graduating from there cum laude in 1976. After that he spent two years in private study with Leonard Shure.

Poison Ivy

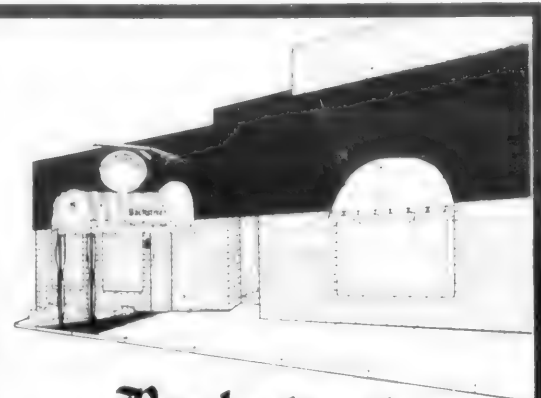

The hardy poison ivy plant can thrive anywhere even on the beach. In fact, some of the worst cases of poisoning occur on the beach, simply because people don't expect to find poison ivy plants there. From Life in the Shifting Dunes, a publication of Boston's Museum of Science.

Now You're Cooking

With the arrival of Spring comes lifted spirits, outdoor fun and a great time to serve more homemade soup. Nutritious, delicious, economical and easy. Here are a few of my favorites:

Broccoli Bisque

1 lb. oz. bag frozen broccoli
4 cups chicken broth + 2 chicken bouillon cubes. (4 cups broth equals 3 cans).

Bring to a boil, cover and simmer for 20 minutes. Puree in blender and set aside. Now — melt 2 TB margarine in saucepan — add 2 TB flour (quick mix for no lumps). Stir in 1½ cups milk, ½ cup sour cream and stir till smooth. Add the broccoli puree. Season with curry to taste (optional). I use about 1 TB. I serve this in transparent glass cups on a saucer with a spoon as some people object to "drinking" soup. Serve it with a dollop of sour cream and a few croutons floating on top. Hot or cold — it's wonderful.

If you prefer to use fresh broccoli you must strain it after it's been cooked and pureed or your bisque will be stringy.

You can use this recipe with cauliflower, cucumber or zucchini. Just remember — a pound of vegetables to 4 cups chicken broth and if using zucchini, parmesan cheese to season is nice in place of the curry.

Gazpacho

(Cold Spanish Soup)

2 lb can whole tomatoes

½ cup finely chopped:

green pepper

onion

fresh parsley

2 mashed garlic cloves

¼ cup red wine vinegar

¼ cup salad oil

Salt & pepper to taste

Pour tomatoes with juice into a bowl and either mash with a potato masher or cut up into bite size pieces with a knife and fork. Add remaining ingredients and chill thoroughly, no less than 6 hours. Serve in chilled cups or bowls with chopped cucumbers, onion and croutons and sour cream as optional garnishes.

Steak Soup

1 lb. hamburger
2 med. onions diced

4 cups beef broth

1 2 lb. can tomatoes cut up

1 cup egg noodles

1 can mixed vegetables

1 cup diced celery

Brown hamburger and onion. Drain grease. Add broth, tomatoes and celery. Simmer ½ hour. Add noodles and mixed vegetables and continue to simmer till noodles are tender.

Thank you, Terry, it was super!

Something very special to serve with your soup is this Gruyere Cheese Ring from Nancy Kokinos.

1 cup water

6 tbs. butter

1 tsp. salt

½ tsp. pepper

1 cup sifted flour

4 eggs

1 cup finely diced

Gruyere Cheese

Place the first four ingredients in saucepan and heat until butter melts and mixture is boiling rapidly. Add flour all at once and continue cooking and stirring until mixture leaves the sides of the pan and forms a ball. Remove from heat.

Beat in (by hand) 4 eggs, one at a time. Stir in cheese and place on a baking sheet in a ring shape. (Lightly grease baking sheet). Bake 45 minutes or until golden brown.

Thank you, Nancy. It's a favorite at our house now.

Kiddies' Corner

Sneaky Pizza

I always have some extra spaghetti sauce on hand for this recipe because I find almost all the kiddos who visit our house love to make these. Allow one English Muffin per child. (You can also use plain bread.)

Halve the necessary amount of muffins and toast them. Let the children spread on the sauce and place a slice of American Cheese on top. You then place them under the broiler till the cheese melts. Of course you can add your own goodies like pepperoni, etc. and use mozzarella in place of American Cheese, but whatever your choices — you will like this recipe.

Puddin' Cones

I prepare regular pudding according to the package directions. Let it thicken in a bowl and prior to serving fill empty ice cream cones with the pudding, garnish with jimmies and watch those little eyes sparkle.

Two things to remember. Don't fill the cones in advance as I did the first time because in half an hour the cones get soggy and collapse. Then you serve them in a soup bowl with a spoon! The second thing is never use rennet custard unless it's your regular day to wash the floor.

Yogie Pops

Mix one 6 oz. can frozen cranberry juice concentrate (or the juice of your choice, pineapple is a favorite at my house) with 2 cups plain yogurt. Mix well (no white lumps please) and freeze in a popsicle mold. The best, says my daughter. Also a great relief for teething infants.

Thank you, Connie Williamson.

The Professional Touch

This month's professional touch is presented by chef Richard Buturlia of the New Indian Ridge Country Club. And if you have ever ordered the Crab Stuffed Shrimp there I know you will be happy to have this recipe.

Crab Stuffed Shrimp

Cream Crab Filling:

½ pint heavy cream

1 stick butter (sweet)

8 Tbl. flour (quick mix for no lumps)

1 small bottle clam juice

1 Tsp. onion powder

½ cup sherry

½ bunch fresh chopped parsley

½ lb. chopped Alaskan King Crab meat

1 dozen fresh jumbo shrimp shelled, deveined and split to lay flat

Melt butter and flour till smooth. Add cream. Stir well, add remaining ingredients. Chef Richard puts all this into a pastry bag and pushes it onto the shrimp. He does this for uniformity but you can place the filling on the split shrimp with a spoon.

Bread Crumb Topping

2 cups crushed Ritz crackers

2 cups Italian flavor bread crumbs

2 cups sweet butter (room temp.)

1 Tsp. onion powder

¼ Tsp. paprika

¼ Tsp. pepper

¼ Tsp. garlic powder

1 Tbl. Worcestershire sauce

Blend cracker and bread crumbs with butter. Add remaining ingredients. Mix well.

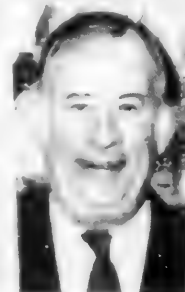

Chef Richard puts 3 shrimps into a small casserole. He then fills them with the crab filling. The secret is he then covers them entirely with the crumb topping and bakes at 400 for 25 minutes — or till golden.

Thank You,
Chef Richard

Meet The Manager

Meet Irving Winn! You will find his friendly face in the Andover Liquor Store at Shawsheen Plaza where he has been the store manager for the past five years.

Irving, a native of Lisbon Falls, Maine, moved to Andover in 1960. He attended the Lowell Vo-Tech School and went on to become the executive vice president for Reed Meredith, a position he enjoyed for six years before going into his own wig business. After this successful venture Irving met and became friendly with Joe Hoffman, owner of the Andover Liquor Store, and has since then managed the store. His son Greg, 22, attends Harvard Business School and his daughter, Mary, 20, is enrolled in Georgetown University.

Here's another very interesting item about Irving's store. Did you know that they will set up wine tasting parties for you? Also you can put your name on their mailing list and once a month receive the names of two wine specials as well as be invited to the various wine tasting parties the store has during the year to familiarize their customers with the variety of wines the store stocks. What a nice feature for our town.

At the present time the store is planning to expand in Andover.

Points Of Interest

Remember last month's fabric softener spray tip? Well, try this the next time you wash anything you can't put in the dryer for fear of shrinkage. Dry the article on a hanger, or over a chair or as you please. When it's completely dry, spray it a few times and run in the dryer for approximately 10 minutes. Watch that lint and all those wrinkles disappear. This technique works wonders with 100% wool socks and velour shirts.

If you have attended the annual Pike School Fair in the past, you are in for a real treat this year. Due to popular demand, the fair will not only be open all day Saturday, May 9, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., but now you can enjoy all the fun, food, crafts, and festivities on the Friday night before as well, beginning 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The various fair committees are busy at work planning to make this year's fair at the Pike School the best ever. Look for the fair updates in future editions of the TOWNSMAN.

The Andover Meat Shoppe is in the process of building a new kitchen in which Damien will be preparing homemade quiches, pastas and entrees such as Chicken Kiev, Cordon Bleu, roast duck, etc. All will be ready to heat and serve. In addition, he plans to have fresh beef and chicken stock available. If his cooking is as good as the recipes he has given me in the past, we are all in for a real treat. Damien plans to have the kitchen completed within the next month.

In Response

Many of you have written to ask what kind of biscuit mix I was referring to in last month's column. I use either Jiffy or Bisquick.

Scott and Joyce need the proportions for a Japanese sauce made with applesauce, fresh ginger root and vinegar. Can anyone help them out?

Diane needs a good recipe for gingerbread men. She wants to make the big ones with an antique cookie cutter she recently purchased and with her present recipe she says they bake up too hard and crack. She would appreciate any help.

Well, folks, that's it for this month. I hope you have found something of interest here for you. Please share your ideas with us and if there is anything we can help you out with, please drop me a line here at the TOWNSMAN, 89 North Main Street.

Camps For Diabetic Youngsters

Learning to accept diabetes as a fact of life, is the goal of a special summer camp, the Clara Barton Camp for Girls with Diabetes in North Oxford.

More than 9,000 children between 7 and 15 who must have insulin shots every day have already participated in the special medical/recreational program since the camp opened in 1932. The 41-member program and medical staff again this year offers two week sessions that include swimming, tennis, canoeing, volleyball and learning by doing, to help young insulin-dependent children accept responsibility for their own medical programs according to their own ability, in a normal and healthy camping environment.

Attendance is limited to insulin-dependent children between 7 and 15.

Fifth and last in a series of articles outlining the proposed West Parish Church total care center, The Living Center.

The past four weeks West Parish Church has been sharing with you the concept of T.L.C. III. The Living Center—learning, loving, living—proposed to be built on land owned by West Parish Church on Reservation Road will encompass a retirement center featuring independent living clusters, congregate living units and nursing care facility, a Hospice, family resource center, day care program and will sponsor a university relationship program.

This university relationship program will develop the opportunities for college and post graduate students to come to the T.L.C. campus to study, do research, and offer their insights into the varied programs offered on the campus. Envisioned are students doing practicums in geriatrics, nursing care of the elderly at the nursing home and terminally ill at the Hospice, pre-school and elementary age child development experiences, and management handling of a multi-faceted facility. It is also hoped that relationships with schools of higher education will provide opportunities for continuing education to the campus residents and the community at large.

Due to unexpected circumstances, the Charette planned for this weekend, April 24, 25, and 26, has been postponed. When the Charette design program is rescheduled, the public will be notified through this newspaper.

Health Care Conference

As proposed federal budget cuts are determined, their impact will also be felt in the health care field. The current emphasis on de-regulation and allowing competition will also directly affect the future of the health care industry.

Panelists will be exploring how market forces may affect the health economy and looking at the pros and cons of a planning approach versus a free market.

On the conference panel will be Stephen Hegarty, Massachusetts Hospital Association, Steven Shufro, Department of Public Health, Dustin Mackie, Director of Family Health Plan of Massachusetts, Kenneth Peelle, Essex North District Medical Society, and Barbara Doyle, Association of Massachusetts Home for the Aging.

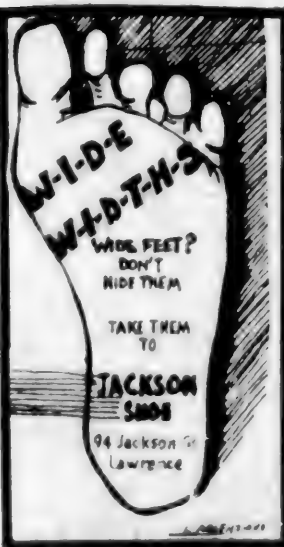

Pre-registration is necessary for the conference, which will be held at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill. Anyone interested in further information on the conference should contact Community Relations at the Merrimack Valley Health Planning Council.

GCA 'Leads Way' With Library Gift

With its $3,500 gift to Memorial Hall Library, GCA Corp. could "lead the way" in private support of public libraries as government begins to "back away," the chairman of the library trustees said Tuesday.

GCA Chairman and President Milton Greenberg presented the gift to Trustee Chairman Robert G. Butler during dedication ceremonies for the company's new plant in West Andover Industrial Tech Park.

The "modest gift" reflects the fact that GCA is happy to become a part of Andover, Greenberg said, and is to be used for books and journals related to technology.

"In my judgment, we are entering a period when public libraries will look to the private sector for increased financial support, as the federal government and state government back away," Butler said upon accepting the check.

"Libraries must seek this help if they are to continue as the most efficient means of providing citizens the information and knowledge so critical in this increasingly complex world," he added.

Assuring Greenberg that he can "expect effective use of these dollars," Butler explained that "statistically, the entire population of Andover visits the town library once each month. On an average afternoon, 350 students use the reading room.

Memorial Hall Library also serves 200,000 people in 27 surrounding communities as a sub-regional library, and circulates books throughout the state as part of an inter-library loan system, he indicated.

GCA is a high-technology company that manufactures lithography systems used by semiconductor manufacturers in its new 300,000 square-foot Andover plant. The company also has plants in other Massachusetts communities, as well as Switzerland.

Fighting Crime Together

Members of the Indian Ridge Neighborhood Association are the largest group of townspeople working with Crime Prevention Officer Joseph Oulette to help stop crime in their neighborhood.

Indian Ridge Follows Wildwood's Steps In Fight Against Crime

By Sue Aucella Deacon

In recent months, residents of the Wildwood Road area have taken steps to stop crime in their neighborhood, compelled by a string of housebreaks and the brutal beating of one neighbor who was assaulted in his bed last December.

Their efforts have won the praise of town officials, an $1,800 grant to put floodlights on some homes, and now, the attention of other neighborhood groups who wonder if they might follow in Wildwood's footsteps.

One group now working with the Police Department's crime prevention officer, Joseph Oulette, is also the largest group to contact him to date: the Indian Ridge Neighborhood Association.

Indian Ridge is a four-year-old subdivision; its large and impressive homes line nine streets and cul-de-sacs stretched between Lovejoy and Dascomb Roads. The neighborhood association was formed when the subdivision was new, explains Corinne Gederman of the association's community relations committee, and in past years has dealt with "safety, economic and social issues."

But the group's interest in crime prevention was inspired by the newly-created Wildwood Neighborhood Association, the Algonquin Avenue resident says. "Crime has become an issue everyone is concerned about. We felt that, as a neighborhood group, we could possibly protect ourselves — and educate ourselves, if nothing else."

About 60 families belong to the Indian Ridge Association, but almost every family in the neighborhood has shown some interest in the crime prevention program, Officer Oulette, who likes to meet with small groups of residents in a neighborhood home, has had to split the Indian Ridge people into four groups and hold four meetings.

Oulette is a full-time patrolman who devotes part of his working hours to speaking before neighborhood groups and community organizations on crime prevention. In addition, he is available for security checks of private homes, and urges residents to call him with their problems and questions.

An Andover resident and nine-year veteran of the Andover force, Oulette was specially trained in crime prevention a year and a half ago when Chief James Johnson tapped him for the assignment. He attended a two-week, full-time course at the Massachusetts Police Institute in Hudson.

"I believe that police should go out and talk to people, get to know them," Oulette says. "I like doing this — I'm not chasing someone in a car, or grabbing someone in a bar," he explains with a grin. "I'm talking to a group that's interested and wants to learn how to help themselves."

"I've gotten a good response," he adds. "Everyone I've met has been fantastic."

Wildwood residents have given the officer glowing reviews, and the Indian Ridge neighbors are equally enthusiastic. "Officer Oulette is absolutely fantastic," Gederman comments. "He is well-informed, very professional, and very receptive to questions."

On Monday evening, nearly 20 residents gathered in the living room of Fred and Shirley Zappala on Wabanaki Way to meet with Oulette. They were the third group of Indian Ridge neighbors to meet with the officer, and they listened to his advice and tossed him questions for more than two hours.

As the neighbors trickled in, with seven-year-old Christina Zappala wandering about the room, they swapped jokes about golf balls on their front lawns from the nearby Indian Ridge Country Club, and made introductions. "I'm meeting all sorts of new neighbors," one woman remarked.

Oulette opened the discussion by quizzing the residents about the town. He explained that, at 32 square miles and with a population of 28 to 29,000, it is the largest town in Essex County. The police department consists of 40 people, who cover 300

Hot Top And Procrastination

The state and federal governments should join Andover in hosting the annual convention of the National Procrastinators Association during the next year, based on current planning.

With the money that could have been saved on three projects important to the future of the town and the comfort of the citizens of the community, had the projects been moved from the drawing boards earlier, the organization could have enjoyed Andover's attributes in fine style.

We speak, of course, of such projects as downtown improvements through the TOPICS program, reconstruction of Andover Street into Ballardvale and the installation of an access road into the Lowell Junction industrial area.

The first two projects threaten to get off the ground this year. The third is still in a state of confusion.

But all have been discussed, planned, engineered, drawn and thought about for a number of years.

There is little doubt that improvement of the Elm Square intersection is a dire need. It has been for some time. Experts have studied it, recommended improvements, and composed plans to resurface and realign the general downtown area for more than five years.

Within the past week, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark informed selectmen that federal authorities who oversee the project have decided that the work is more extensive and costly than originally thought.

We would hope that this revelation does not cause a reversal of plans and the necessity to go back to reengineering and planning of the project. By that time hot top, an oil-based product, will be even higher in cost and the priority rating at the federal level may find Andover's need diminished.

This project initially set out to improve the general downtown area, including ramps for the handicapped as well as some beautification measures, but is now threatened due to the lack of funds via the Prop 2½ route.

Hopefully the project will get off the ground this summer, even though it will mean some inconvenience for a month or two for motorists and shoppers. The end result will be worth it, if and when the work gets underway.

As for the Andover Street reconstruction, Ballardvale residents have waited patiently for a number of years, as this project too sat on the drawing board and funds gathered through state, county and local sources for its actual work were appropriated.

Yet, over the years, the roadway remained a washboard as residents travelled to and from the Vale, hopeful that one day the surface would be improved.

There will be an article in this year's town meeting warrant asking for the approval of funds to get this project underway, and for the sake of those who have suffered with an inferior roadway for far too long, it is highly recommended that the item be approved.

As for third item, the Lowell Junction interchange, state and federal authorities still place the project third on the list, with River Road considered more important.

For over 20 years, the powers that be have been unimpressed with the need for an access road off Route 93 into an industrial area which has simply mushroomed in development in the past 15 years.

Their arguments against such a roadway are no longer valid. The industrial area is fully developed. One firm there awaits the decision as to where the road will be placed in order that its expansion plans can be formulated. The two projects considered of higher priority are both more expensive than the Lowell Junction plans. The Ballardvale area, now used by industrial traffic is badly in need of traffic relief for safety reasons, if nothing else.

Purely and simply, the road is needed and soon.

With regard to all three projects, it is apparent that the time has arrived for hot top and no further procrastination.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — April 1906

The first dandelion of the season was picked by our well known townsman, Peter D. Smith, last week Wednesday.

The state milk inspector was in town this week and it is reported that at the homes of several milk dealers he found quantities of milk which was below the standard. The guilty dealers expect to be summoned to court in a few days.

A fine of $5 was imposed on a local man who was before Judge Stone on Monday afternoon, charged with drunkenness. He was arrested by Chief Frye on a complaint of larceny from C. Robinowitz, the shoe repairer on Park street, who claimed that he stole a watch while in his shop. After a thorough investigation, however, the watch was found in a kettle in Robinowitz's shop. The charge of larceny was then dropped.

Box 52 was pulled in last night about 7 o'clock by Sylvester Goodwin, at the request of two men who told him that F.E. Gleason's coal sheds were on fire. The men reside on North Main street, and from their homes it looked as though the entire sheds were being consumed. They did not investigate further, for if they had they would have found that the blaze was coming from the garden of Rev. F.A. Wilson, just opposite the sheds, where a lot of rubbish was being burned up.

50 Years Ago — April 1931

A state school for the development of backward children, believed to be the first of its kind in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, will be erected on a tract of land in Ballardvale and West Andover. Actual start of the work on a series of small buildings, which will comprise the plant, will not be made for at least a year because architects and engineers, already engaged on the project, will not have their task completed for several months.

The badly decomposed body of a newborn baby boy was found in a deserted lane in the wooded section of Ballardvale near the Wilmington line Tuesday afternoon. A Punchard high school junior was returning home, taking a short cut through the woods at Ballardvale street, when he made the discovery.

In a determined effort to demonstrate a diet that would be as cheap as possible and yet provide all necessary elements in balanced proportions, the New England Sanitarium and Hospital has placed ten nurses on a scientific diet at a cost of 30 cents per person. The 10 girls that volunteered to go on this diet did so realizing that an inexpensive yet nourishing diet can be tested that would help needy people to live healthfully and cheaply.

25 Years Ago — April 1956

Revaluation of real estate in Andover is under serious consideration by the assessors. They have met with John F. Bram, representative of the Cole-Layer-Trumble company, a professional revaluation firm and discussed the subject.

Sub-divisions will be subject to higher assessments, even though no houses are being built on the lots. Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of assessors, told the planning board Monday night that a new method of assessing sub-divisions has been adopted. While the new method will increase revenues, Mr. White said the assessors feel it will also serve to slow down sub-divisions because no builder will want to get approval for a large development and then pay the higher taxes over a period of years while he is building the houses.

Two Andover men graduated from the state Police academy in Framingham March 31 and were assigned to active duty. Arthur Jowett was assigned to the Monson barracks serving the Northampton area and William Stewart received orders for the Bridgewater barracks.

Under a new state law, the local housing authority may now admit low-income persons or families who presently live in sub-standard housing.

10 Years Ago — April 1971

Andover's record long town meeting finally came to an end Monday night, or really Tuesday morning at 12:15 a.m., with action taken resulting in a possible $2 increase in the tax rate. It had been originally predicted that the rate would go up $4 over the 1970 levy of $46 per thousand of valuation.

The town has received a federal grant from HUD totalling $1,500,000 for construction of the water treatment plant. Town Manager J. Maynard Austin was notified Wednesday morning by Congressman F. Bradford Morse, that Andover's application for the federal funds had been approved. The plant, to be constructed at Haggett's Pond pumping station will have a total cost of $5,000,000. The town's share now will be $3,500,000.

Negotiations between the Andover Police Department and the town manager broke down in public Monday night, as 20 off-duty patrolmen picketed in front of Memorial Auditorium at the start of town meeting. The police and town manager have been negotiating since October. With the off-duty men not working at town meeting, Chief David L. Nicoll and Lieutenants Hector Patullo and Raymond Collins were on duty at the town meeting. They are not covered under the contract.

The Public Forum

Continue Peer Counseling

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

We would like to express our admiration of and hope for the continuation of the Peer Counseling Program at Andover High School. The wide scope of the program and the students who are aided by its many activities should not be reduced. The Peer Counselors are a glowing example of helping others in a society that too often is though of as the "Me" generation.

All teenagers need to know they have someone to talk to and be with, somewhere they can go and be accepted, and this program provides the fulfillment of these needs. We are grateful that our town has instituted such a beneficial program and urge that it is not a victim of budget cuts. It is a prime example of a learning experience for those who participate as well as those who counsel. The volunteer counselors are a credit to their families, their peers, and their community.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Space shuttle contractor
overspent taxpayer moneyBy JACK ANDERSON and
JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- The United States' first space shuttle flight, featuring the rocketship "Columbia," was a spectacular success. It is unfortunate that it cost billions more than it should have.

We have been reporting for months that the contractor, Rockwell International, has been loose with the taxpayers' money. Some of the overspending was unforeseeable and can be excused. Unexpected costs are inevitable in a pioneer space effort.

But Rockwell has a cost-plus contract. And some Rockwell officials have had the attitude that the government will pay all the cost overruns, so why worry?

For example, the company sent two employees to Europe to review a James Bond movie and charged the trip to the taxpayers. Moving the shuttle from Lockheed's California facilities to the launch site in Florida cost the public $2.5 million, just for per diem and travel expenses. Even secretarial help was hauled across the country. One Rockwell executive, while he was in Florida, ran up expenses of $7,200 a month - not counting his salary.

These charges were petty compared to some of the contracts that were awarded. A Rockwell vice president, for instance, funneled $1.5 million to a public relations firm to publicize the space shuttle for three months. The firm just happened to employ the vice president's son.

When the spaceship was moved across the country, many of the fragile, heat-resistant tiles fell off. Rockwell hired a crew to work around the clock to make the repairs. The workers had to replace about 80 percent of the tiles.

Some of the tiles shook loose again on take-off. The tiles were essential to the safe return of the Columbia; without them, the spaceship would burn up in the friction of the atmosphere. Fortunately, not enough tiles were lost to endanger the craft.

A Rockwell spokesman denied any wrongdoing. But our sources say a grand jury is investigating the company's alleged improprieties and some indictments are expected in a few weeks.

ASSASSINATION UPDATE -- Another confusing piece has been thrown into the puzzle of the recent assassination attempt on President Reagan. It involves a charge that security was lax during the president's recent visit to Canada.

The charge appeared in a publication called "Executive Intelligence Review." The publication is associated with Lyndon LaRouche, a political activist who was a Democratic candidate in the presidential primaries last year.

The reference to lax security in the "Executive Intelligence Review" caught the eye of White House officials. They turned it over to the Secret Service to check out.

The controversial passage charges that although the Royal Canadian Mounted Police "had received death threats to Reagan prior to his visit, they allowed demonstrators to come as close as 50 feet from the president at an open-air speech."

The report claims further that "on-the-scene security personnel acknowledged that an assassination would have been easy."

We should emphasize that no conclusions have been reached by White House officials. No accusations have been made against either LaRouche or "Executive Intelligence Review."

In fact, as far as we know, none are even contemplated. But Reagan administration officials are curious about allegations of lax security that were printed just a matter of days before an attempt was made to kill the president in downtown Washington.

Meanwhile, a fascinating study has been written of assassins and others involved in violent crimes. It contradicts the traditional view that psychiatric treatment and confinement in an institution are the best ways to treat people who are prone to violence.

In fact, a growing number of experts believe that some treatments given in institutions may actually increase an individual's violent tendencies. Not only that, but research at a Canadian penitentiary identified Valium -- the drug John Hinckley was taking -- as likely to increase violence, even though it is prescribed as a tranquilizer.

What happens, apparently, is that violence-prone individuals are not actually cured by psychiatric treatment. Instead, they may simply learn to cover up their violent tendencies.

One thing cannot be disputed: The last four persons who attempted to assassinate an American president had all been psychiatric patients. The treatment obviously had not cured them. In the case of President Reagan's assailant, it may have made him more dangerous.

HEADLINES & FOOTNOTES -- The old Bureau of Reclamation was renamed the U.S. Water and Power Resources Service by the Carter administration and Interior Secretary James Watt is now changing it back. It will cost about $40,000 to replace the brass plaques at dams and visitors' centers across the nation. Although the Navy is plagued by cost overruns, the admirals are abolishing the office of the assistant secretary for fiscal management. The brass apparently believe the way to dispense with wasteful spenders is to get rid of those who notice the waste. The Buffalo office of the Internal Revenue Service recently spent $75 to hire an African dance troupe to entertain employees. It was justified as employee training.

Babe Ruth Tryouts Begin Saturday

The Andover Babe Ruth Blue and Gold baseball teams for youngsters ages 13-15 will hold a series of tryouts the weekends of April 25-26 and May 2-3.

The Saturday tryouts will be held at the Andover High varsity field, while the Sunday tryouts will be at the East Junior High Playstead Field.

All 13-year-old candidates are asked to report from 1-3 p.m., while all 14- and 15-year-olds are asked to report from 3-5 p.m. each day.

All 30 positions, 15 on each team, are open with eligible players from last year's teams required to earn their way back on the squads this season.

Youngsters who will not turn 16 prior to August 1, 1981, are eligible.

Andover Babe Ruth teams have enjoyed outstanding success over the past 22 years, experiencing only two losing seasons and failing to make the playoffs only twice in that time.

After chalking up over 150 victories during the seven-year period from 1973-79, going 157-46-5 overall, Andover split into two teams for the first time last summer.

Both the Blue and Gold squads finished last season with identical 14-6 league records, battling to the playoff semifinals where the Blue ousted the Gold 2-0 in a brilliant pitcher's duel between righthanders Jeff Parker and Jim MacMillan.

The Blue subsequently advanced to the championship round where it was ousted by North Andover.

The Babe Ruth season, which begins in early June and runs through mid-August, generally consists of between 30-40 games including regular season, playoff and non-league action.

The Greater Lawrence League, comprised of eight teams from three towns (Andover, North Andover and Lawrence), also fields two All-Star squads.

Last summer the 13-year-old team advanced to the District finals, while the 14-15 crew won the Eastern Mass. State championship and competed in the New England Tournament at Leominster.

A total of eight Andover players were members of the Star teams.

The two Andover teams are planning their 11th annual trip to Montreal, Canada, where they have posted a 20-6 record against Canadian competition the past decade.

All candidates are reminded to bring their spikes and glove to the tryouts.

All players trying out and not making the Babe Ruth teams will still be eligible to attend Senior League tryouts.

The Senior tryouts will also be May 2-3 at the high school, but kids trying out for Babe Ruth need only register early and attend one Senior League tryout to be eligible for Seniors.

Senior registration is scheduled for Monday, April 27, and Saturday morning, May 2, in front of the West Junior High gym.

Howie Larrabee and Rick Harrison will again coach the Andover Blue and Gold Babe Ruth teams respectively.

Further information may be obtained by calling Rick Harrison.

Warriors Lead Off With Four In A Row

By Rick Harrison

The talent-laden Andover High baseball team, apparently feeling little pressure from pre-season prognostications which pinpointed them as the power in the Merrimack Valley Conference East Division, started the 1981 season quickly behind some excellent pitching efforts.

Junior righthander Jim MacMillan fired a nine-inning, complete-game four-hitter, allowing no hits over the last five frames, as the Golden Warriors stopped non-league crosstown rival Phillips-Andover Academy 9-3 in their opener.

Senior leftlander and Tri-Capt. Bob Heidt followed with another route-going performance, settling down after a shaky first inning, as Andover nudged always-tough Methuen 5-4 in the Conference lid-lifter.

Junior righthander Bill Caselden produced the third strong outing in a row, scattering four safeties to guide AHS to a Saturday morning 5-2 conquest of Billerica.

MacMillan, Tim Bolduc and Glen McIntyre then combined talents in the Golden Warriors' fourth straight triumph this past Monday, a 4-3 decision over Chelmsford highlighted by Tim Grams' three-run homer.

Coach Bill Vickers' crew (4-0) returned to action yesterday afternoon, meeting Haverhill High for the first time ever, and tomorrow afternoon Andover travels a couple miles down the road to duel MVC newcomer Greater-Lawrence Regional (1:30 p.m.).

Andover, 9-3

Jim MacMillan, whose Junior Varsity debut last Spring resulted in a no-hitter, handled the Phillips Academy nine with relative ease in his first varsity starting assignment.

"Jimmy got stronger and stronger as the game went on," observed Vickers. "He struck out nine and walked five."

"The original plan was to use two or three pitchers," added Vickers. "But MacMillan was throwing so well we didn't have to."

The Golden Warriors wasted no time jumping on Big Blue starter Jeff Barres, as catcher Jake Powell hammered a long three-run homer in the top of the first.

Glen McIntyre led the game with a walk, junior third baseman Carmen Scarpa singled, and Bob Heidt bounced a field-er's choice grounder that erased Scarpa at second base.

Powell stepped up with two outs, and the switch-hitter drilled a shot over PA centerfielder Jon Pelletier's head for a 3-0 AHS edge.

MacMillan's only real trouble came in the bottom of the second, when Phillips tied it 3-3 on a bases-loaded triple by John Bellissimo.

Andover grabbed the lead for good with three runs in the third, and once again Powell sparked the uprising.

Heidt singled, Tim Grams reached on an error, and Powell then clouted a two-run triple. Jake scored the sixth run moments later on sophomore Greg Sacco's RBI infield out.

The winners made it 7-3 in the fourth, when Scarpa walked and Heidt followed with a solid triple to right-centerfield.

Andover added an unearned run in the fifth as sophomore second baseman Jeff Demers reached on an error, sophomore Andy Emmert beat out an infield hit, McIntyre's sacrifice bunt attempt was misplayed, and Heidt drew a bases-loaded walk.

The Warriors produced their final run in the top of the eighth, while MacMillan was mowing down PA batters with devastating regularity.

Grams opened the inning with a walk, Powell forced him at second, Sacco's infield out advanced Powell to second, and he scored when junior shortstop Tim Derby's outfield fly was dropped.

Emmert finished the game 2-for-3, Heidt was 2-for-4 and Powell 2-for-5. Sacco contributed a single, while Powell scored three runs and Heidt scored twice.

Andover played a steady defensive game, led by Demers who handled seven chances flawlessly at second base.

Three Andover residents saw action for Phillips Academy, as shortstop Dave Flanagan delivered an infield hit in three official at bats. Pelletier went 0-for-2 and reserve catcher Bill Best was hitless in one time up.

Andover, 5-4

The Golden Warriors won in Methuen for the first time in approximately seven years, the last occasion being when left-hander Glenn Verrette overpowered the Rangers with a no-hit gem.

It took another southpaw to secure this victory at Nicholson Stadium, as Bob Heidt scattered nine hits, walked just one and struck out five.

"Methuen will beat some people this year," offered Vickers after the game. "Some people are taking them lightly, but they hit the ball better than any team we scrimmaged all Spring."

The Golden Warriors preserved the 5-4 decision by throwing out two Ranger baserunners at home plate, and centerfielder Tim Grams made another crucial toss to nail a Methuen player at second base.

AHS inched ahead 1-0 in the top of the first, as Tri-Capt. Wayne Merola walked.

Wahoos Take Second In National Meet

49

THE TOWNSMAN, APRIL 23, 1981

Several local swimmers recently traveled to West Point Academy, N.Y. to represent the Lawrence YWCA Wahoos in the National Swimming and Diving Championships.

Leading the team to a second place finish overall was Tracy Dowd of 11 Crescent Drive. Tracy was a finalist in each of her events, taking fourth in the 200-yard individual medley and third in the 200-yard freestyle, second in the 200-yard butterfly. She became the 1981 National champion in the 100-yard butterfly with a winning time of 1:01.0. Tracy sparkled in every event as she clocked personal best times in each race and managed to cut 12 seconds off of her previous best time in the 200-yard freestyle. At the Wahoo banquet, Tracy was honored as most valuable swimmer in her age group.

Also adding points to the team total was Amy Brown of 168 Elm St., who swam the freestyle events in good form and took eighth place in the 1000-yard freestyle, a grueling distance race. A clutch performance by Amy in her leg of the 400-free-style relay helped the Wahoos take a third in that event. Other events for Amy were the 50-yard, 100-yard and 200-yard freestyle.

Diane Sagasar, a strong butterfly for the Wahoos this season, took a seventh place in the 100-yard butterfly and 10th in the 200 individual medley and she qualified in the 100-yard butterfly. Diane is a resident of 56 Chestnut St.

Claire Piazza, 33 Kirkland Drive, swimming in her first National Meet, put in a strong effort in each of her events, cutting several seconds from all of her previous best times. Claire swam freestyle at 50, 100 and 200 yards.

Warriors Take Track Opener

Ellen Williams

The Andover boys opened their track season with an overwhelming victory of 102-43 over Billerica. The Warriors led throughout the meet, capturing all but one place in the field events.

Mark Robichaud captured first place in the shotput while Jim DePiano and Mike Sanchez finished second and third respectively. Scott Coots, Derik Ceurvels and Tom Fox placed one, two and three in the javelin. Dave Avery, Doug Goodman and Jonathan Kent swept the discus and Mike Walsh, Chris Coots and Mike Lucey did the same in the long jump. Dave Deloury won the triple jump, jumping 39½ feet while Mike Walsh and Mike Lucey finished a respectable second and third. In the high jump Ted Kelley captured first place and Steve Smith and Joe Keefe tied for second. Steve Stabile placed second in the pole vault while Kevin Poulson placed third.

Steve Jackson added to the Warriors success with his two first place performances in the 120 high hurdles and 330 low hurdles. Jeff Gutterman won the 100 with an excellent time of 10.8 and Carl Schwind did the same in the two mile.

Second place performers included Kyle Dorsey, 120 high hurdles; Scott James, mile; Kevin Canavan, 440; Gary Milne, 220; and Steve Smith, 880.

Third place finishers were Mike Lucey, 120 high hurdles; Dave Fluet, 100; Tom Fox, mile; Joe Smith, 440; and Joe Keefe, 330 low hurdles.

Andover's mile relay team was also victorious over Billerica. It consisted of Ted Keeley, Tom Kannam, Mike Maher, and anchor leg, Wayne Giles.

Andover will host the State Relays Saturday on the Eugene Lovely Field at 10 a.m.

Warriors

raced to third on a wild pickoff throw, and kept coming when the relay soared over Ranger third baseman Art Broadhurst's head.

Coach Bruce Parker's crew came right back with three runs in the bottom of the stanza, however. Bob Gram opened with a single. Dave Bamford was safe on an error. Chris White and starting pitcher Sean Bradley spanked consecutive RBI singles, and White raced home when Doug Boyle grounded into a 4-6-3 doubleplay (Demers to Derby to Tri-Capt. McIntyre).

Heidt settled down thereafter, allowing just six hits and one run over the final six innings.

The Golden Warriors scratched out a second run in the second stanza. Bradley, who worked the first four and issued six walks, put Scarpa and Greg Sacco on base with back-to-back free passes.

After Derby forced Scarpa at second base, Jeff Demers lashed a run-producing single to centerfield.

The locals struck for their final three runs in the third, loading the bases when Heidt singled. Grams was safe on an error, and Sacco drew another walk.

Carmen Scarpa made it 4-3 with a clutch two-run single. Derby walked, and Demers came through with his second RBI single of the game.

The Rangers collected their final run in the bottom of the fourth, and only some alert defense by Andover kept Methuen from tying or taking the lead.

Paul Szostak started the rally with a single, and Mike McGurn sent him churning to third with a sharp single to centerfield. However, McGurn tried to take an extra base and was gunned down at second on a strong throw by Grams to Demers.

George St. Hilaire, who was nailed at home plate on a fine second inning throw by leftfielder Merola, laced a sharp grounder to Scarpa at third. Szostak broke for the plate, and Scarpa erased him with a strike to catcher Jake Powell.

The importance of all this became clear moments later, when Art Broadhurst hammered a long double to left-centerfield rescuing St. Hilaire.

The Rangers stirred around in the bottom of the seventh. Bob Gram stroke a one-out single to right-centerfield, with Tim Grams doing a good hustle job to cut the ball and hold Gram at first base.

Bamford then drew the lone walk off Heidt, putting runners at first and second, but Heidt whiffed Chris White and retired Bradley on a game-ending outfield fly.

Demers led the Andover offense with 2-for-4 and two RBI, while basehits that didn't figure in the scoring were spiked by Greg Sacco and Tim Derby. Sacco also scored a pair of runs.

Gram and White pined Methuen with two hits each, while Mark Miner fashioned three strong frames on three-hit, shutout relief.

Andover, 5-2

Bill Caselden's five-hitter was marred by just one walk, while he fanned seven, as the Golden Warriors broke this one open with three runs in the bottom of the fourth to beat Billerica.

Andover had to overcome a pretty strong pitching effort by Indians' freshman lefthander Fred Glavine, who permitted only five hits while striking out 11 and walking six.

Billerica inched ahead 1-0 in the top of the second, when Jay Plausky slammed a triple to leftfield and raced home on junior Paul Callery's sacrifice fly.

The Warriors squared things in the home half, however, as Greg Sacco was hit by a pitch, stole second, and scored on Tim Derby's sharp opposite-field single to right.

Carmen Scarpa ignited the three-run fourth inning uprising with a one-out single. Glen McIntyre forced him at second, but he circled the bases with the go-ahead run when Sacco sliced a double to leftfield.

Derby walked, a pair of wild pitches plated Sacco, and Derby came across on Jeff Demers' soft line drive single over the outstretched glove of Indians' short-stop Plausky.

Billerica's final run cut the gap to 4-2 in the fifth. John Miner slugged a one-out triple to left-centerfield, and Darren Clericuzio followed with a sharp RBI double to left.

Further trouble was averted, however, when Clericuzio was thrown out trying to score on Co-Capt. Bob Walsh's single to rightfield. Sacco relayed the ball to McIntyre, who fired to catcher Jake Powell for the tag on Clericuzio who came home standing up.

The Golden Warriors chalked up an unearned insurance run in the sixth. Tim Derby walked, stole second, took third on a fourth ball wild pitch to Wayne Merola, and scored on a wild pickoff throw that bounced into leftfield.

Tim Grams added Andover's fifth basehit, an infield single.

Defensive standouts were leftfielder

Merola and second baseman Demers for Andover, along with sophomore first baseman Paul Ames of Billerica. The Warriors played errorless ball.

The way the wind was whipping around nothing was a sure catch in the outfield," noted Vickers. "But Merola made four putouts in left, only one of which I'd call routine."

Demers picked up five assists, and the only other ground ball out was made by Derby at short to end the game. That's unusual for Caselden," stated Vickers, "who throws a good sinking fastballs that usually produces a lot of grounders."

Andover, 4-3

Tim Grams' three-run blast to leftfield in the bottom of the fifth was the difference in the game, which also featured a Houdini-like escape by Glen McIntyre from a monumental seventh inning jam.

Pat McAndrews fashioned a strong four-hitter in a losing cause, whiffing five and walking just two, but the Golden Warriors came up with the big hits when necessary.

Grams helped AHS notch its opening run in the first, lashing a one-out single, stealing second, and riding home on Jake Powell's long double.

The Lions rattled in the fourth when starter Jim MacMillan hit a streak of wildness, issuing four straight walks to Tim Gallagher, Phil Dubois, Jim Martin and Dave Upton.

Chelmsford grabbed a 2-1 advantage in the top of the fourth when Brian Hauze drew another of the Lions' 10 walks, stole second, and raced across on Tim Spurrell's single.

Jeff Demers launched AHS' winning rally by reaching on an error, after which

Healthy Back Program At Y

If someone suffers from back pains the odds are eight to 10 the "Y's Way to a Healthy back" program can make him feel a lot better or may even eliminate the problem.

The National Y.M.C.A., in cooperation with medical specialists, has developed a simple exercise program for sufferers of back discomfort. The course helps relieve back pain and nervous tension, increases flexibility and improves muscle strength. The program is also geared for people who are regular exercisers and yet suffer back discomfort.

Classes meet Wednesday and Friday, 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. or Monday and Wednesday, 6:45 to 7:30 p.m., for six weeks beginning April 27.

Wayne Merola walked and Grams unloaded his long homerun to leftfield to make it 4-2.

McAndrews opened the amazing Chelmsford seventh with a single, Spurrell singled, and Gallagher was safe on an error to load the bases with no one out.

Tim Dubois walked to force home a run, cutting the Warriors' lead to 4-3, and when the count went to 3-0 on the Lions' 6-7, Dean McLean it didn't look good for Andover.

However, McIntyre proceeded to pick the runner off third base for the first out, and he then battled back to whiff McLean for the second out. McIntyre completed the miraculous escape by fanning the next hitter to end the game and preserve the triumph.

Bob Heidt contributed a single to the Andover offense, while the Golden Warriors' three hurlers combined for a six-hitter.

Shannon Smith, Gillian Recesso, Kim Heseltine, Megan Simpson, Amy Heislein, Heather Koehler, Amy Heseltin, Hilary Recesso, Nicole Poisson, Malcolm Galvin, Brent Raftery, John Teichert, and Paul Durant.

Andover Hockey Association

Squirt A Wilmington League

Andover 2 - Cambridge 3

In first period action Andover looked sluggish, which led to an early penalty. Cambridge took advantage of the power-play and scored on a second shot, in close, on goalie Ian Anderson. Andover committed two more penalties which kept the pressure on. At the six minute mark, Cambridge again scored from a scramble in front of Andover's net. The remainder of the period saw play even up and at the close of the period, Cambridge was ahead 2 to 0.

Momentum shifted in the second period in favor of Andover. Defense picked up on both sides. Joey Lyons, Tom Tormey, Hugh Maginnis, Chip Stella and Stephen McSweeney for Andover shut off the Cambridge offense. At the same time, Andover's offense put on intensive pressure. The line of Johnny Gilmartin, Matt Adams and Duke McNamara had good pressure, but Cambridge's goalie was up to the task. The period closed with Cambridge ahead 2 to 0. Andover outshot Cambridge 8 to 7 in the period. Both Andover goalies, James Berberian and Ian Anderson, combined to blank out Cambridge for the period.

The third period again favored Andover in terms of positional play. Brent Raftery, Peter Donegan and Glen Farnham got the puck in Cambridge's end. Peter sent the puck to Steve McSweeney at the right point. Steve swung into the center and let a nice shot go. As the Cambridge goalie adjusted to stop it, Farnham deflected it in. Andover kept the pressure on, but was caught up as a result. A Cambridge center deflected the puck past a crashing defenseman and broke clear. He came in alone and beat our goalie to the right side. Andover, however, kept the offensive pressure on. The line of Pat Breen, Doug Bleszinski and Robert Stoltz combined to score for Andover. Pat carried the puck from the left side of the net and sent it to Robert on right wing. He fired the puck and the goalie got it. The deflection went to Doug who beat their goalie at the three minute mark. At a score of 3 to 2, Andover kept the pressure on and the puck stayed in Cambridge's zone for the remainder of the period. With less than a minute to go Andover pulled their goalie. With six Andover skaters, Cambridge was able to withstand heavy offensive pressure. The period ended with Cambridge the winner. The sluggish first period cost Andover the game.

Danvers League

Andover 3 - Concord, N.H. 0

In a return game with Concord, N.H., Andover played a tough game and came away with a fine win. In the first period, Andover dominated positional play. The pressure paid off when Andover scored two minutes into the period. Pat Breen carried the puck into Concord's end, flipped it to Robert Stoltz on right wing who fired the puck on net. As the goalie made the save and the players converged on the net, the puck bounced clear to Tommy Tormey who wasted no time blasting the puck by the Concord goalie. Joey Lyons, Steve McSweeney, Hugh Maginnis, Chip Stella and Tom Tormey did a super job shutting down Concord's offense. The line of Glen Farnham, Brent Raftery and Peter Donegan put good offensive pressure on Concord's goalie, who was up to the task on several point blank shots. The period ended with Andover ahead 1 to 0. Goalie James Berberian did a super job shutting out Concord's offense. Shots on net were at seven each.

The second period was again dominated by Andover and in the opening minute we scored. Doug Bleszinski hit Pat Breen with a nice pass and Pat and Robert broke in two on one in Concord's zone. Pat pulled the defenseman left and passed the puck to

Appointed Physical Director

Robert G. Lavoie

Robert G. Lavoie of Salem has been appointed physical director at the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A., according to Heidi Wolfman, executive director.

His major responsibility will be in the area of health enhancement primarily for men and boys.

Lavoie, who had been the manager at a local sporting goods store since 1979, began his "Y" career in 1977 as assistant physical director at Andover. In 1978 he became the youth physical director at the Lawrence Y.M.C.A. where he was active in coaching basketball, football, baseball, track, gymnastics and swimming.

A graduate of the University of Massachusetts, he earned a B.S. degree in physical education and also completed one year of general studies at the North Shore Community College. Previously, he had traveled throughout South America, Africa and Asia, while on active duty with the Navy. Lavoie began his duties March 30.

Robert, who, in an attempt to stop the puck with his skate, deflected the puck by Concord's goalie. Andover's defense played even stronger than in the first period and did not allow a shot on net for the second half of the period. At the five minute mark, Andover scored its final goal. Tommy Tormey carried the puck into Concord's zone and slid a nice pass to Stoltz in the center slot. Robert deflected the puck to Pat Breen on left wing, who blew the puck by Concord's goalie. The period ended with Andover ahead 3 to 0.

The third period was a little more even but Andover still had the edge. Offensively, Concord had more opportunities. Goalie Ian Anderson kept all Concord's attempts out. Andover's offense had their opportunities also. The line of Johnny Gilmartin, Matt Adams and Duke McNamara worked hard and kept the pressure on, but were unable to score.

The period ended with Andover winning 3 to 0. In all Andover outshot Concord 22 to 13. Both Andover goalies deserved this shutout in a well-played game.

Bantam A's Take Second

After seven months, 73 games, a first round playoff shutout victory, and two periods of outstanding hockey in the championship game, the bubble finally burst on the Bantam A hockey team.

That's how close the Bantams came to capping off a successful season with a league championship. Despite a 100 percent effort by everyone involved, Andover could not quite get past a very good Chelsea hockey team. Although each player and coach were disappointed in the final outcome, the runner-up position the Bantams attained was nothing to be ashamed of. To the contrary, after 30 Danvers League games, the Bantams finished ahead of seven other teams in their division and came within 20 minutes of a championship. So all in all, there could have been a number of poorer ways to end the season.

Andover 4 - North End 0

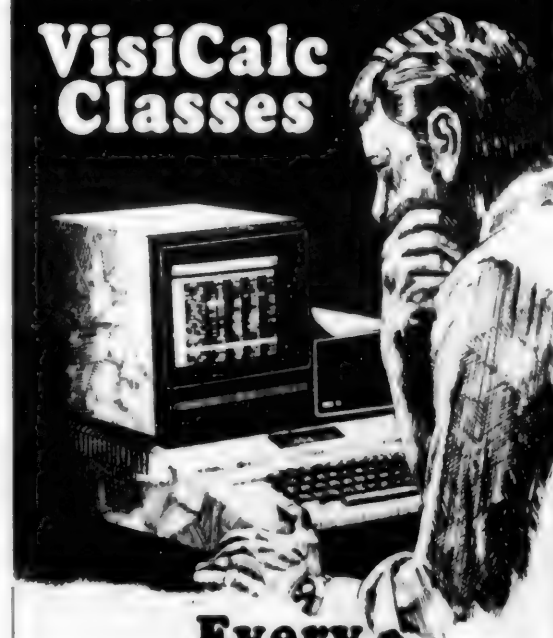

As the playoffs began on Saturday evening, coach Donovan was not sure of exactly what to expect from his skaters as they took to the ice against regular season champ, North End. The last two weeks of the year only produced two ties and the boys were showing signs of a long and tiring season. However, once the puck was dropped, it didn't take long to see the Bantams had come to play. Each line had several scoring opportunities early with Daly, Smith, Moracco, Marjerison and Morrison being turned back by good saves. Andover finally broke the ice at 5:30 when defenseman Mike Del Trecco sent defensive partner Billy Donovan off on a rink length rush which ended with Donovan scoring for a one-zip lead.

North End wasn't about to give up at this point and only the strong goaltending of Steve McDowell held the opposition off the boards. With 35 seconds remaining in the period, Ken Crawford (LoPresti) put Andover up 2-0 on a tip in from in close. The second period saw plenty of action but no scoring until the last few seconds of the period. Doug Guittarr (Donovan, Morrison) got a very important goal to give Andover a 3-0 lead going into the last period. It wasn't until Donovan's (UN) second goal of the night with five minutes remaining that the locals could really sense the victory was at hand. This win was truly a fine team effort as everyone's contribution was essential to the outcome.

Chelsea 9 - Andover 5

On Sunday evening, the Bantams took to the ice knowing one more victory would give them the league championship. The opening period produced some fine two-way hockey as both teams set a tremendous pace. Andover drew first blood at 6:30 when defenseman Barry Brussard (UN) finished off a rink length rush to score his first of two goals on the night. Just over a minute later, Doug Guittarr (Morrison) put Andover up 2-0 when he finished off a perfect pass from Morrison. Before the period ended, Chelsea got on the scoreboard but not before goalie Ray Cormier made two sensational saves when the defense broke down in front.

The second period was to be the beginning of the end for the Bantams. Thirty-four seconds into the period, Andover went up 3-1 on LoPresti's (Crawford, Daly) shot from the right boards and things looked good. However, six unanswered goals (four powerplay tallies) for Chelsea before the end of the period proved to be too much to recoup from. By the time the third period started, it was basically over. Each team scored twice in the final stanza with LoPresti (Brussard) and Brussard (LoPresti, DelTrececo) scoring for Andover. In the end, each member of the Andover squad was presented a silver trophy representing the runner-up position while Chelsea took the gold trophies for the championship.

The Bantams completed the 80-81 season with a record of 38-28-8 overall. After a slow start in the fall when most of the squad members were concentrating on soccer or football the team really came to life in mid-November. For the next two and one half months, the Bantams went 19-3-1 with a nine game winning streak included. The months of February and March, which included the annual Canadian trip, was played at a .500 pace as the boys went 12-11-2. As April came, so came the playoffs in Danvers and their second place finish. The only thing that remains is the team's annual breakup dinner.

The Andover Hockey Association will lose 11 14-year-old boys who will now graduate to the high school ranks next year. This group includes forwards Jim Daly (capt.), Ken Crawford, Dean LoPresti, Mark Ala, Doug Guittarr, Chris Morrison and Bill Wentworth. Departing defensemen include Bill Donovan (capt.), Jon Crawford (capt.), and Barry Brussard. The final member of the group is goalie Steve McDowell.

The 13-year-old boys who will be back next year to form the nucleus of the 1981-82 squad include forwards Jeff Kennedy, Tom Marjerison and Shane Smith. Return-

A much larger and stronger Georgetown lineup dominated the first half of play and scored twice on corner kicks. They upped their total to three early in the second half. Andover rallied at this point and scored two quick goals (Jeff Smith on a pass from Russell Lamontagne, and Steve Colitz on a pass from Jeff Smith). Georgetown kept up the pressure, however, and despite some great saves by goalie Ed McParland, were able to increase their total to five before the final whistle. Andover Stompers 2

Boxford SC 1

Andover took the lead ten minutes into the contest when Glenn Livermore drilled in a great halfback shot. Boxford tied it up early in the second half. With five minutes left in the game, a definite goal was stopped on the goal line by a Boxford fullback using his hands, which resulted in Andover being awarded a penalty shot. This was taken and completed by Barry Tucker, giving Andover the lead. Within minutes David Eckman kicked in a goal following a throw-in, however, a questionable offside ruling denied the tally and the game ended 2-1. Bow: Nicky Bates, Paul Hevehan and John Drake.

Andover Lancers 1

North Andover Iroquois 3

Demonstrating some fine team play and excellent passing skills not evident in the Andover effort. North Andover scored twice in the first half to take the lead. In the second half, following confusion in front of the Iroquois net, Scott Brink tallied to put Andover on the scoreboard. Shortly thereafter, the Iroquois were awarded a penalty shot which they did not complete as a result of a great save by goalie Mike Lydigsen. North Andover did up their lead by one before the final whistle, and they won the victory points. Bow: Marten Wennik and Scott Brink.

Andover Chiefs 1

North Andover Seminoles 4

North Andover took an early lead, however, Bryan Poisson's goal following a pass from Chris Abell tied it up. North Andover came back with a high shot which went in over the head and off the fingertips of goalie Tom DeLeire. In the second half of play North Andover kept up the pressure and took many good shots on Andover's nets, the majority of them blocked by alert goalie Larry Aiello. North Andover was successful in adding to their tally despite the great effort and they won the victory points. Bow: Chris Abell, Bill Earnshaw and Dave McDonough.

Andover Rowdies 2

Merrimac Uniteds 2

With the gusty winds in their favor in the first half, the Rowdies controlled much of the play and tallied two goals (David Cox on a pass from Greg Harris, and David Bartle-penalty kick) to take the lead. In the second half, Merrimac had the advantage of the strong winds and they tied it up with two goals (Clint McGown and Pat

Soccer Camp In Fifth Season

THE TOWNSMAN, APRIL 23, 1981

The Andover Soccer Camp announces its fifth consecutive season serving the youth of northeastern Massachusetts and southern New Hampshire.

Since its inception more than 1000 campers from the local area, and from as far distant as Hong Kong and Holland, have gained in knowledge and skill from the camp. Serving boys and girls from 8 to 18, this year's program will offer three coed weeks: July 6 to 10; July 13 to 17; and July 20 to 24. A fourth week, July 27 to 31, will combine an all-girls course with that of a camp for senior players from the 9th to 12th grades.

Operated under the auspices of the Phillips Academy Summer Session and coordinated by P. A. Athletic Director Joseph B. Wennik, the camp is staffed by area coaches and advanced players. Co-directors Amundsen of Andover High School and Tarbox of Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational High School, have assembled the following coaches:

Andy Byrne, assistant coach, Plymouth State College; Suzanna Kaplan, assistant girls coach, Harvard University; Dave Decker, graduate Marblehead High Player and graduate of Southern University of New York; Gary Hart, head coach, Burlington High School; Evan Holms, head coach, Holy Cross University; Steve Levine, head coach, Tewksbury High School; Rod Picard, head coach, Marblehead High School; Karl Schworke, head coach, Salem, New Hampshire High School and goalie coach this year; Dave Stackhouse, assistant coach, Burlington High School; Dave Wilson, head coach, Lynnfield High School; Jim Wood, assistant coach, Wakefield High School; and Phil Youngclaus, assistant coach, Greater Lawrence Vo-Tech.

Counselors are: Michelle Belanger, graduate of Masconomet High School; George Donovan, senior captain, Holy Cross; Grace Emmert, player, University of Vermont; Steve Luby, player, University of Massachusetts; Jeff Nicastro, player, University of Pennsylvania and Leslie Perry, player, UVM.

Phillips Academy provides its facilities so that local youth can have a first-rate athletic experience at a reasonable price. In addition to using P.A. fields, campers eat a warm lunch in the dining hall, see films in the Audio-Visual center, swim in the Academy pool, seek sheltered practice on rainy days in the Cage and avail themselves of locker room and showers at will. A limited number of scholarships is awarded each summer on the basis of need.

This summer parents will be invited to a special program on Friday evening, as opposed to the Saturday morning of past years. Parents will be treated to a round robin tournament involving each team's skills contests for all team members and the awarding of prizes and certificates.

Finally, in order to fight inflated transportation costs, the camp will arrange, at a slight additional expense, a bus pick-up and dropoff for those areas able to organize a group of ten or more campers.

For further information, please contact the Athletic Director, Phillips Academy, Andover, MA 01810, Attention: Soccer Camp.

The first moving picture theater was the Electric Theater on South Main Street in Los Angeles, which opened in 1902 with an hour-long presentation. Admission was two cents.

nities, particularly in the first half with gusting winds in their favor. They did tally one (John Lemieux) to get on the scoreboard and held the lead at the end of the first half. In the second half, Ipswich tallied three goals and they won the victory points. Bow: Chris Catalan.

Andover Stingers 3

North Andover Eagles 1

Andover won the 3-1 victory over North Andover with excellent team play and great defensive effort. Barry Bloom put them on the scoreboard with a well placed shot into the lower corner of the Eagles net. Mike Sherman made it 2-0 on a pass from Mark Edgar, and in the same half tallied again on a fine pass by Hai Dang. North Andover did get one into the lower corner of Andover's nets before the half ended. The second half was scoreless and Andover won the victory points. Bow: Hai Dang, Jere Kearns and Frank Rossito.

Boxing Facts

The heaviest heavy-weight boxing champion also held the title the shortest length of time. Primo Carnera, weighing in at 270 pounds, held the title for 350 days.

miles of town roads on three separate shifts

From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., four police cars patrol the town, he said; from 5 p.m. to 1 a.m., that number drops to three cars, and from 1 a.m. to 9 a.m., to two cars.

Most housebreaks occur between 8 a.m. and sunset, Oulette told the group, and usually during the week, when both members of a household may be away at work.

Who are the housebreakers? "Mostly amateurs and juveniles. The usual age is 12 or 13," Oulette said. "They are high school or junior high students." And what these young housebreakers steal is "small stuff — radios, jewelry, watches, loose money."

Oulette offered the neighbors two major messages: watch out for one another, and never be afraid to call the police.

Wildwood is an example of a group of neighbors who have "really begun to help themselves by watching out for each other," he told the Indian Ridge homeowners. "People like their privacy, but sometimes they get too private," Oulette said. "They see something suspicious going on across the street, but they don't do anything about it because they don't want to bother their neighbor, and they don't want to bother the police."

It is important for neighbors to know one another, to notice when something looks wrong, and to communicate, the officer said. And it is equally important for citizens to call the police station whenever they suspect a crime is being or has been committed — without hesitation. "Don't be afraid to bother the police," he urged. "It's all part of the job."

The officer gently took the neighbors to task for failing to put house numbers on their homes. He explained how difficult it is for police or fire personnel to find unmarked houses, and repeatedly stressed the importance of house numbers throughout the evening.

Next Oulette outlined the steps that homeowners can take to protect their homes. Engraving pens are available at the police station, so residents can mark and register their property, he said.

And, distributing pamphlets around the room, he described alarm systems, door and window locks and other safety precautions citizens can take.

Zappala, president of the Indian Ridge Neighborhood Association, told Oulette association members are most interested in getting lights put up around their dark neighborhood. The officer suggested they might wish to follow the example of the Wildwood association, which recently applied for — and received — an $1,800 grant from the town's Community Watch Committee to put up floodlights on several homes.

After the meeting, as the neighbors gravitated toward coffee and dessert in the dining room, Zappala said he believed Oulette's advice would prove "helpful. He gave some practical security hints that people probably never thought about before."

Corinne Gederman feels that "given the size of the town, the growth in the town, and Proposition 2 1/2, we have to start doing things for ourselves, acting more as a neighborhood."

"The times," she adds quietly, "are changing."

Bats' Good Omen

Bats have been regarded throughout the world with fear, contempt, and esteem. Medieval European artists often painted bat wings on figures representing devils and demons, whereas pre-Columbian societies in Mexico and Central American revered them in their religion. In the Orient, bats are considered a good omen and a symbol of a long life, according to Massachusetts Audubon.

About 41 percent of the world's automobiles are American.

For most people, last year wasn't a very good one.

For Saab, too. Because

Well, now we have to make room for our 1981 cars. So we're marking the 1980 models way down. In fact, you'll probably never see prices as low on one of our stockers again.

And don't worry about the model date—last year's Saab is most likely far ahead of this year's anything else.

through college to consider high tech. "You don't have to be Albert Einstein to work at a company like GCA," Foley emphasized.

Selectmen Chairman Gammon spoke briefly, commenting on Andover's pride in its continuing industrial development and crediting Greenberg, a former selectmen chairman, with having had "the foresight to plan such high quality development."

"We are honored and complimented that GCA has chosen Andover as part of its operation," she said, "and we thank you for helping us make it with Proposition 2 1/2."

Greenberg said GCA would "dedicate ourselves to being good neighbors. We are not polluters, we are not short-termers - our commitment is long-lived."

And, he added, the company looks forward to "a long and mutually rewarding relationship" with the state as well. "While an international company such as ours will always have plants in other states and in other countries, it is my hope and my expectation that GCA will continue to make it in Massachusetts."

The 30-minute ceremony ended with Greenberg's presentation of the $3,500 check to Library Trustee Chairman Butler. It was followed by a tour of the new plant and a luncheon.

GCA, founded in 1958, manufactures industrial production equipment and scientific and analytical equipment sold worldwide, and also performs research and development projects related to the environment.

The Andover plant, built on a 30-acre site in Tech Park, will be devoted entirely to the production of "state-of-the-art lithography systems," Greenberg said in his welcoming speech. "This facility will be one of the key plants furnishing design and manufacturing tools for the multi-billion dollar, world-wide electronics industry."

"Within the next few years," he predicted, "we will be shipping from this one factory over a quarter of a billion dollars worth of advanced lithographic systems for the world's semiconductor manufacturers. It is to that goal that we dedicate this plant today."

Designed by architects Jung Brannen Associates, Inc., the plant consists of seven one-story "modules" ranging from 30,000 to 50,000 square feet, with an adjoining 40,000 square foot three-story office and customer training area. The plant also includes jogging trails and volleyball and basketball courts for its employees.

In addition to its corporate headquarters and manufacturing divisions in Bedford, the company has plants in Somerville, Chicago and Kreuzlingen, Switzerland.

at the Circulation Desk at Memorial Hall Library. The course will meet for five consecutive Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. starting April 29. Victor Sanborn will be the instructor and the fee will be $45. Open to adults and high school and college students, participants are guaranteed to at least double their reading speed.

Current Displays

Three interesting displays may be found in the main reading room at Memorial Hall Library this week. An AVIS exhibit highlights the Skug River Reservation, the annual canoe race and Julie Mofford's history of the organization. Merrimack Valley Primary Prevention Center, a service of Lowell General Hospital, is one of eight such centers in Massachusetts providing resources to the community about prevention of alcohol abuse. Their display with numerous handouts is accompanied by a number of library books on the subject. In memory of the holocaust, the week of April 26 to May 3 has been established nationally as "Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust." The U.S. Memorial Council asks all citizens to observe the week with prayers and study as a tribute to the spirit of freedom, justice and compassion. The library is featuring a major book display in commemoration of this World War II tragedy.

Great Books Discussion

The last session in the present series of Great Books Discussions will be held at Memorial Hall Library on Tuesday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m. "Emma Zunz" and "The South" by Jorge Luis Borges will be the subjects for discussion this week. The Discussion Group will reconvene in early fall to complete their readings and discussion of the "Individual & Society," an anthology of great works of literature published by the Great Books Foundation. Further information about the group may be obtained from Dorothy Sherrerd, Community Services Librarian.

Children's Room News

By Katie Busch

Our April Vacation Week activities continue on Friday, April 24, at 2 p.m. with "Funny Fun," an hour of games and crafts guaranteed to tickle your funnybone. All children ages 7 to 12 are invited to join us.

How Does Massachusetts Rank?

"The Book of American Rankings" by Clark S. Judge and published by Facts on File is a fascinating new addition to Memorial Hall Library's reference collection. This book presents comparisons between states on 315 subjects ranging from cost of living and education to transportation and health care. For example, Massachusetts ranks 12th in property crime and the amount of alcohol consumed, yet 43rd in percapita energy consumption. The Boston area ranks 1 for where the most singles live; the most married people, however, are found in Mesquite, Tex., and Sterling Heights, Mich.

Arbor Day

Om 1872, Mr. J. Sterling Morton, a member of the Nebraska Board of Agriculture, introduced a resolution into that board designating a day in April as Arbor Day. It all stemmed from a dream he had as a young man, while plowing the treeless prairie, of a land made beautiful and more useful through tree plantings.

1. Plan requirements.

a. A site plan certified by a Registered Land Surveyor or Registered Professional Engineer indicating the dimensions of the lot, the proposed tower location and distances to property lines, existing and/or proposed building locations, existing and/or proposed overhead utility lines, and such other reasonable information as the Board may require to properly review the merit and safety of the proposed tower.

CHAIRMAN

April 23 & 30, 1981

TOWN OF ANDOVER PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with Chapter 40, G.L., Section 5, notice is hereby given that the Andover Planning Board will hold a public hearing Thursday, May 7, 1981, 11 Essex Street, second floor, at 8:00 P.M. to consider the following amendments to the Zoning Bylaw.

Article To see if the Town will vote to amend the Andover Zoning Bylaw as follows:

1. Amend Section III. (Establishment of Districts) by inserting a new subsection F, to read as follows:

F Multifamily Overlay District (MO)

A Multifamily Overlay District is hereby created as an overlay district, comprising all areas within: one (1) mile radius of the centerline intersection of Routes 28 and 133 (Shawsheen Square); or within one and one-half (1½) miles radius of the centerline intersection of Route 28 and Elm Street as projected (Elm Square); or within one (1) mile radius of the centerline intersection of Andover Street and the M.B.T.A. Railroad (Ballardvale Center). See Section VI.N. for requirements.

2. Amend Section VI. (Other Requirements) by adding the following.

N Multifamily Overlay District (MO)

1. General Objectives

The MO District is intended to broaden Andover's range of housing opportunities, while at the same time preserving natural amenities and other elements of the existing landscape and remaining consistent with existing and planned service facilities and neighborhood character. To that end, it is intended that specific sites for multifamily development will be located where public water, sanitary sewerage, streets, storm drainage systems, and schools can without unplanned public capital expenditure adequately service the development, and where such development will reinforce the existing pattern or business services.

2 Underlying District Requirements

Any development within the MO District shall be subject to all otherwise applicable requirements of the underlying zoning district in which it is located, except that, in addition to uses otherwise allowable, multifamily dwellings may be authorized on Special Permit from the Planning Board if in accordance with the following provisions.

3. Multifamily Requirements

a.) Location

Town sanitary sewerage and water facilities must be adjacent to the site and of such capacity to serve the proposed multifamily development without public capital expenditure to alter the Town sanitary sewerage and water facilities. For purposes of determining sewerage flow estimates, the Planning Board shall utilize the current Andover Board of Health Minimum Requirements for the Utilization of Sanitary Sewerage Systems. For purposes of determining water flow requirements, the Planning Board shall utilize a minimum flow of 2,000 gallons per minute (or such other higher amount consistent with that required by the Town of Andover fire rating classification).

b.) Dimensional Requirements

1) Lot dimensions. Minimum parcel size shall be 15 acres; maximum parcel size shall be 30 acres. Frontage requirement is same as underlying district requirement.

2) Yard depth. Front, side and rear yard depth requirements shall be a minimum of fifty feet (50') except that no multifamily dwelling shall be closer to any street or property line than twice its building height. Buildings containing multifamily dwellings on the same lot shall be separated by a minimum of thirty feet (30') or as required by the Massachusetts State Building Code, whichever is greater.

3) Height. No building shall exceed thirty-five feet (35') in height nor two and one-half (2½) stories.

4) Lot coverage. Maximum lot coverage including accessory buildings shall not exceed thirty percent (30%).

5) Open Space. All land not designated for roads, minimum yard depth, areas for dwellings, or other development within the parcel shall be held for open space area. Open space shall be preserved for recreation or conservation and shall comprise not less than 40% of the parcel. Wetlands, as defined at M.G.L. Chapter 131, Section 40, shall comprise not more than 50% of the open space. The open space shall be conveyed either to the Town of Andover and accepted by it for park or open space use, or to a non-profit organization the principal purpose of which is the conservation of open space, or to a corporation or trust owned or to be owned by the owners of the residential units within the development. In any case where the open space is not conveyed to the Town, all instruments creating the relevant corporation or trust shall be submitted to the Planning Board for its review and acceptance prior to the Board's approval of the Special Permit. If a corporation or trust is utilized, ownership thereof shall pass with conveyances of the residential units. In any case where the open space is not conveyed to the Town, a restriction enforceable by the Town of Andover shall be recorded providing that such land shall be kept in an open or natural state and not be built upon or developed for accessory uses such as parking or roadway. Before approval of the Special Permit by the Planning Board, the developer shall declare which of the three options relative to ownership he will exercise, and such disposition shall be recorded as a restriction to the development plan.

6) Accessory uses. Accessory uses shall require the approval of the Planning Board and shall be included in the plans and supporting materials required in subsection 4. If not included in the original submission, the requirements of subsection 6 shall apply to proposed accessory uses. No accessory use shall be permitted within 100' of any street or property line and the exception at Section V.B.3.a. shall not apply.

7) All other requirements of Section V. shall apply.

c.) Number of Units

The Basic Number of dwelling units allowed on any parcel shall not exceed the number of single family dwelling lots into which the parcel could be divided pursuant to the requirements of the Zoning Bylaw and the Planning Board's Rules and Regulations Governing the Subdivision of Land. That Number shall, at the applicant's expense, be determined by the Planning Board based upon a subdivision plan of land certified by a Registered Land Surveyor or a Registered Professional Engineer.

An increase in the number of dwelling units over the Basic Number may be authorized by the Planning Board in accordance with the following criteria, but in no event shall the Board authorize more than a 200% increase over the Basic Number nor an increase to a number inconsistent with the findings of subsection 5. In addition, no increase to the Basic Number shall result in a density exceeding four (4) dwelling units per acre based on the total parcel acreage. For purposes of determining the increase over the Basic Number, a fractional dwelling unit shall be dropped.

1) "Affordable" Units. Add to the Basic Number a number equal to the ratio of "affordable" dwelling units* to the Basic Number of dwelling units, times the Basic Number.

2) Unit size. Add to the Basic Number a number equal to 50% of the ratio of studio (efficiency) and one bedroom dwelling units to the Basic Number of dwelling units, times the Basic Number.

3) Open space and buffering. Add to the Basic Number a number equal to the percentage of parcel area reserved for open space in excess of the 40% minimum requirement, times the Basic Number.

*See Definition, Section II

d.) Design Requirements

- 1) To minimize departure from the scale and visual characteristics of single family residential development:
 - (a) there shall be no more than eight(8) dwelling units in a single structure;
 - (b) no more than two (2) dwelling units shall be served from a single building entrance;
 - (c) the development plan shall preserve the existing vegetation and, where necessary utilize landscape techniques to minimize the visibility of the site for persons passing it or overlooking it from nearby properties.
 - 2) To avoid light overspill, no buildings shall be floodlit; outdoor lighting fixtures shall be mounted no higher than 15 feet, oriented and shielded to avoid glare on adjoining premises; and plantings or other screening shall be used to block headlight glare from drives and parking lots onto adjoining premises.
 - 3) To avoid traffic conflict, any egress serving 24 or more dwelling units shall have at least 250' visibility in each travel direction, and be separated from all other driveways or intersecting streets by at least 150 feet.
 - 4) At least two off-street parking spaces shall be provided for each dwelling unit having two or more bedrooms, and at least one parking space for each dwelling unit having fewer bedrooms.
 - 5) Interior circulation and utilities shall provide service functionally equivalent to that assured individual lots under the Planning Board's Subdivision Regulations in effect at the time of Special Permit application.
- 4. Special Permit Application Requirements
- The application to the Planning Board for a Special Permit under this section shall be accompanied by the following plans and supporting materials.
- a) Plan of the tract showing existing topography at 2 foot contour intervals, wetlands, vegetative cover, soils, existing streets and structures within and contiguous to the tract;
 - b) Where a subdivision of land is involved, a preliminary subdivision plan, which may be combined with the plan required under the preceding paragraph;
 - c) Site development plans showing the proposed grading of the tract at 2 foot contour intervals and the proposed locations, dimensions, materials and types of construction of streets, drives, parking areas, walks, paved areas, utilities, open space, planting, screening, landscaping, and other improvements, and the locations and outlines of proposed buildings and accessory uses;
 - d) Preliminary architectural drawings for building plans including typical floor plans, elevations, and sections.
 - e) A tabulation of proposed buildings by type, size (number of rooms, floor area), ground coverage, and summary showing the percentages of the tract to be occupied by buildings, parking and other paved vehicular areas, and the amount of open space;
 - f) Such other information as the Board may require to substantiate a decision to permit an increase in the Basic Number of dwelling units or to substantiate a decision as outlined in subsection 5 below.
- 5. Decision
- In deciding on a Special Permit for Multifamily dwellings, the following criteria shall be used by the Planning Board rather than those specified at Section VIII.C.2. Such Special Permit may be granted if the Board determines that the proposal would further the following Town interests (as they may be applicable):
- a) Town water facilities are available to the site and of such capacity to provide a minimum flow of 2,000 gallons per minute (or such other higher amount consistent with that required by the Town of Andover fire rating classification) so as to ensure adequate fire protection without public capital expenditure;
 - b) Town sanitary sewerage facilities are available to the site and of such capacity to provide an adequate means of sewage disposal pursuant to current Andover Board of Health requirements and the Town Master Sanitary Sewer Plan without public capital expenditure;
 - c) Stormwater runoff from development of the proposed site will not increase downstream flows or storm drainage facilities are available to the site and of sufficient capacity to accommodate the increased flow pursuant to the Town Master Drainage Plan without public capital expenditure;
 - d) Town transportation facilities are available to the site and of such capacity to accommodate projected traffic flows and transportation demands without public capital expenditure;
 - e) Town school facilities are of such capacity to accommodate projected school-aged persons without public capital expenditure;
 - f) Development of the site must preserve the landscape of the open space in its natural state insofar as practicable by minimizing tree removal and grade changes. Development of the site, where appropriate, must promote such natural features of the parcel as waterbodies, wetlands, hills, slopes, wooded areas and unique geological, botanical, and ecological areas or features. The development must also preserve, where appropriate, buildings of architectural or historic significance;
 - g) Based upon current Town-wide building activity and approved development proposals, the ratio of single family dwellings to multifamily dwellings is projected not to exceed approximately 3:1 during the projected development and construction period of the proposal;
 - h) The Planning Board may, in appropriate cases, impose additional restrictions consistent with this Bylaw as a condition(s) to granting a Special Permit
- 6. Amendment and Revision
- a) Amendment
The Planning Board, upon application by the developer and after a public hearing, may amend a Special Permit previously granted, but only in accordance with the standards hereinbefore set out
 - b) Revision
Subsequent to a Special Permit granted by the Planning Board under the provisions of this section and where applicable, the approval of a definitive subdivision plan by the Planning Board, minor departures from plans as approved may be made from time to time in accordance with applicable laws, bylaws, and regulations, but the development under such Special Permit shall otherwise be in accordance with the submission accompanying the developer's application for a Special Permit, except as modified by the decision of the Planning Board. The developer shall notify in advance the Planning Board of any such revision. If the Planning Board determines such revisions not to be minor, it shall order a hearing as provided above.

3. Amend SECTION II (DEFINITIONS) by inserting and appropriately numbering the following definition:

Dwelling unit, 'affordable': a dwelling unit with deed restricted sales price not to exceed 375% of the maximum eligible annual income for federally subsidized moderate income housing of that size in Andover, or with monthly gross rental not to exceed 37.5% of the maximum eligible monthly income.

Article To change from Single Residence C to Apartment District the following described parcels of land:

Two parcels of land in Andover, Essex County, Massachusetts and situated off the easterly side of South Main Street (also known as State Highway Route 28), and being northerly and northeasterly of a tract of land recently conveyed by Warren B. LEGAL NOTICES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS
CIVIL ACTION 75-3017-Z

vs.

THE GILLETTE COMPANY

CIVIL ACTION NO. 77-3455-Z

PAUL I. LEWIS

vs.

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION

ATTENTION: BLACK EMPLOYEES OF THE GILLETTE COMPANY AND BLACK FORMER EMPLOYEES OF THE GILLETTE COMPANY

THIS NOTICE IS FROM THE FEDERAL COURT IN BOSTON, AS A RESULT OF TWO LAWSUITS AGAINST THE GILLETTE COMPANY. ALL BLACKS WHO ARE NOW WORKING AT GILLETTE, OR HAVE WORKED AT GILLETTE AT ANY TIME SINCE JULY 17, 1973, OR WHO HAVE APPLIED FOR CERTAIN JOBS AT GILLETTE BUT DID NOT GET HIRED, MAY HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS AGAINST GILLETTE. YOU SHOULD READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

Three black persons, Henry Brown, Samuel Jones and Paul Lewis, who used to work for The Gillette Company, have sued Gillette. In the lawsuit, they claim that Gillette has discriminated against blacks in hiring, job promotions, firing and other employment decisions.

Gillette has denied these claims. It states that blacks are treated fairly by Gillette, that it hires qualified blacks and that its employment practices do not keep blacks from obtaining better jobs.

The Court has not yet decided whether the claims of Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones and Mr. Lewis are correct. Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones and Mr. Lewis, who are the plaintiffs in this case, are using Gillette not only for themselves but also on behalf of all blacks who may have been discriminated against by Gillette since July, 1973. This group is called a "class". The lawsuit which Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones and Mr. Lewis have brought is called a "class action".

If you are in one of the groups described below, you are a member of the class. If Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones and Mr. Lewis win their case against Gillette they may be entitled to a Court order which will require Gillette to change some of its employment practices. Also, members of the class may have the right to recover money from Gillette or to obtain a better job at Gillette if they can show that Gillette has discriminated against them.

Those who are members of the class include:

1. All blacks who now work for Gillette in Massachusetts.
2. All blacks who have worked for Gillette in Massachusetts at any time since July 17, 1973, even though they no longer work for Gillette.
3. All blacks who have at any time since July 17, 1973, applied for, but did not receive, an executive, administrative, managerial, supervisory or professional job with Gillette in Massachusetts.

All members of the class have three choices about how to proceed. If you are a member of the class:

1. You may decide that you want Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones, Mr. Lewis and their lawyers to represent you in this lawsuit and to argue your case in Court. If you decide to be represented by the plaintiffs and their lawyers and the plaintiffs win, you may have the right to recover money from Gillette or to obtain a better job at Gillette. If the Court orders Gillette to change its employment practices, you will have the right to enforce the Court's order on your own behalf.

If Gillette wins the case, then you are bound by the decision of the Court and cannot bring your own lawsuit claiming class-wide racial discrimination. You can, however, still sue Gillette for racial discrimination against yourself. Whether the plaintiffs win or lose, you will not have to pay any fees to the lawyers who are representing the plaintiffs or any of the costs of the lawsuit.

2. You may decide to be a part of the class in this lawsuit but that you would rather be represented by your own lawyer. If you want your own lawyer, rather than the lawyers who are representing Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones and Mr. Lewis, you must have your lawyer contact the Court on or before May 12, 1981. Be sure to show a copy of this notice to your lawyer.

3. You may decide that you do not want to be part of the class in this lawsuit. If that is your decision and the plaintiffs win, you will not have the right to recover money from Gillette or to obtain a better job at Gillette as a result of the lawsuit. However, you will be free to sue Gillette on your own behalf if you wish to do so. You will not be bound by the Court's decision in this case.

If you decide that you do not want to be part of the class, you must write to the Court. Your letter should be sent to: Nina Singer, Deputy Clerk, United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, 1525 United States Post Office and Courthouse, Boston, Massachusetts 02109. You must tell the Court of your decision not to be a part of the class on or before May 12, 1981. If you do not notify the Court by this date you will be presumed to be a party to the action and will be bound by the decision of the Court. The plaintiffs' lawyers are Robert Frank, Jarvis Kellogg, Gerald McElroy and Richard Welch of the law firm of Choate, Hall & Stewart, 60 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02109.

If you decide to remain a member of the class, and to be represented by the plaintiffs' lawyers, you do not need to do anything further at this time. You will receive further notices about the case from the Court in the future.

BY THE COURT,

RYA W. ZOBEL,

United States District Judge

EXTENDING YOUR INVESTMENT

Most modern families
now agree that home ownership is the first sound investment in land. And now that more than half of the families own their own homes, many see the wisdom of extending their holdings and realizing a good return from property they own and rent to others.

The value of property
keeps pace with the economy, and for many years the trend has been up...up...up. Historically, real estate values have always increased faster than the cost of living during inflation and decreased slower in recessions. It's an ideal inflation hedge. Judicious investment in income property offers

safety, stability, and opportunity for income,
profit and tax savings.

But buying income
property on your own is risky. It pays to ask your REALTOR about
property as an investment. You incur no obligation...but you will gain information of practical value to you and your family.

If there is anything
we can do to help you in the field of real estate,
please phone or drop in
at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., An-
dover. Phone: 475-5100.
We're here to help.

Cable TV Decision Finally Due

The selectmen are expected to award the town's cable 15-year cable television license on Monday, May 4, — six months

Hypnosis Program

A presentation on the basic medical principles and aspects of hypnosis will be given in the Choate Hospital Conference Room Tuesday evening, April 28, at 7 p.m.

The program will be directed by Michael Murphy, M.D., Choate's chief of psychiatry, who is a trained instructor in the field of clinical hypnosis. He will give an overview of the value of hypnosis as a therapeutic tool and its use in dealing with such problems as overeating, sexual disorders, thumbsucking, smoking, stuttering, insomnia, pain control, drug and alcohol abuse, fear of height, flying, stage fright, test anxiety, school phobia, and ego strengthening and how we can apply these principles to suit our individual needs.

The program is offered to the public as a community service, free of charge. To register or for further information, call the hospital.

First Agreement

In 1795 the first collective bargaining agreement in the U.S. was obtained by Philadelphia printers, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Exhibit By Elders

"A Tribute to 50-Year Members: 1930-1980," is the exhibit through May 14 at the Copley Society, 158 Newbury St., Boston.

The paintings and sculpture of George Aarons, Alicia Atkinson Waterston, Henry H. Brooks, Lee Winslow Court, R.H. Ives Gammell, Aimee Lamb, Maria Maravigna, Amelia Peabody, Richard Recchia and Harry Sutton, Jr., were specially selected to reflect their individual styles that evolved during their membership.

This exhibition of New England artists is free and open to the public. Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

after the town's Cable Television Advisory Committee made its recommendation to the selectmen.

The board has a May 6 deadline for awarding the license. Chairman Norma Gammon said Wednesday.

The board was scheduled to make the long-awaited decision Monday night, but is still awaiting a report from the consulting firm studying the proposals of the two firms competing for the license. The consulting firm, Malarkey Taylor and Associates of Washington, D.C., will submit its final report next Thursday, April 30.

The competing companies are Rollins Cablevision of Atlanta — the advisory committee's choice — and Continental Cablevision of Lawrence.

The selectmen elected to hire a consultant after the local firm called Rollins' financial statements into question during a public hearing last November.

The two firms helped delay the awarding of the license by taking several weeks to agree on a consulting firm; the companies are sharing the consultant's $12,000 fee.
